you use and the way they're put together is important. Chord Progressions: The Building Blocks of Hit Songs We're using three-note chords called triads to craft these progressions — specifically major (no symbol), minor (displayed with a "-"), and diminished (displayed with a "°") triads. To keep things simple, we'll look at chords in the key of C, which means there are no sharps or flats (the black keys on the piano). So, here are our C major chords: C major (C, E, G)

= I. D minor (D, F, A) = II- E minor (E, G, B) = III-5
