THE CHURCH HAS LONG AWAITED THE MIDNIGHT CRYWe live in a sinful world. We live in a world filled with violence, hatred, hopelessness and every evil thing that the heart can imagine, but from the beginning of time God has a people. Though a minority they love Him and choose the way of righteousness. God promised a Saviour to save this world from the penalty of sin. Jesus our Saviour came and looking into the future to the end of this wicked world, He sees the disappointment that some of His people will experience. Some are foolish and will be greatly disappointed but unable to do anything about it.Events taking place around the world are ominous. Christ's return is drawing nigh and His church is sleeping! Disappointment awaits some of His people! Now is the time to keep our lamps trimmed and burning in preparation for the midnight cry and the coming of Christ. Do you discern the times? Get ready! Get ready for our redemption is truly drawing nigh!

Rediscover the parable of the Ten Virgins with a unique and enthralling presentation that provides a personal, latter-day perspective to the classic New Testament story. In this beautifully illustrated volume, featuring all-new art by Simon Dewey, each of the Ten Virgins from the biblical account is given an identity and an individual story. Each is portrayed with a positive quality or virtue that would be characteristic of a wise virgin. But as their stories unfold and the struggles of their daily lives are revealed, each woman makes choices that ultimately determine whether she will be one of the five who are prepared with lamps trimmed and burning at the coming of the Bridegroom. With an effective blend of scripture and narrative, this expanded, illustrated treatment of the well-known parable allows readers to relate to the actions and motives of the Ten Virgins in a new way.

Thomas Shepard (1605-1649) was a New England Puritan minister. Forbidden to preach in England, he emigrated to Massachusetts in 1635. The most eloquent measure of his classic The Parable of the Ten Virgins is that there is a scarcely a page in The Religious Affections where Jonathan Edwards does not reference Shepard's work.

The Wheat and Tares and the Ten Virgins are two parables that are not often talked about by theologians, bishops, and the fivefold ministry of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers. And this is due in part, in my opinion, because there is an obscurity as to who are the tares and the five foolish virgins in those parables that the Lord Jesus is referring to, who are not only in the world, but also who call the Lord Jesus as their Savior. So, the tares that I'm going to put a spotlight on are those preachers and false teachers of God's word be they called Pastor, Bishop, Apostle, Elder, Father, Minister, Reverend, Dr. Reverend, Reverend Dr, whatever title these tare preachers and false teachers of God's word prefer. And of the doctrines the devils that have been sown, through them, into the body of Christ, as well as who are the five foolish virgins out of the Ten who got left behind.
