Mirrors are amongst the most well known British Iron Age objects. They are of a type which is peculiar to Britain and are significantly different in form from contemporary Greek, Etruscan and Roman forms. 58 mirrors are known. They are made of bronze and iron, or sometimes a combination of bronze and iron components. Mirrors comprise a handle and a reflective plate, which is often decorated with intricate and free-flowing designs. Some plates are also rimmed. Mirrors are found throughout Britain; two have been discovered in Ireland and two others are known from the continent. They are most commonly found in graves; but were also deposited in bogs and rarely at settlements. They date to the mid-late Iron Age. This book tests the applicability of the biographical approach to prehistoric objects and the application of the biographical approach to prehistoric material culture is evaluated by constructing biographies for Iron Age mirrors. This study is divided into three main sections. In the first section mirrors are introduced as is the theoretical methodology (Chapter 2). Chapter 1 explains what mirrors look like, the contexts they are found in and how they have been studied in the past to pinpoint what we do not yet understand about them and what needs further clarification. In Chapter 2 the biographical approach to artefacts is outlined; how it has been used in archaeology and how the approach will be utilised to expand our knowledge of mirrors and the broader Iron Age context by reconstructing the relationships that constitute mirrors and their biographies. Chapter 3 examines evidence for the production of Iron Age metal artefacts as well as investigating the context of the production of metalwork in ethnographic contexts. The aim is to develop an understanding of the technology of mirror production, the relationships established through their production and the potential future trajectories of the life of a mirror set out at the time of manufacture. In Chapter 4 mirror decoration is examined. Chapter 5 summarises the results of a programme of visual examination of the physical condition of surviving mirrors. Over 30 mirrors were examined for signs of wear, polishing and repair; clues which can indicate how mirrors were used and inform us about their social lives. Chapter 6 examines the form of mirrors. In the third section deposition context is examined. Chapter 8 is the first comprehensive dating audit of all Iron Age mirrors. In Chapter 9 all of the deposition data is collected. Chapter 10 is an analysis of the results of Chapter 9. In Chapter 11 the implications of these findings for wider research and the future of the application of the biographical approach to archaeological research, is assessed.

A stunning woman. A secret cabal of torture. Can she submit long enough to escape? Avril Gillios keeps herself in top physical condition. So much the better for the casual flings where she submits herself to a man's control. But her marathon running and clean eating has made her sought after in a different circle: a thousand-year-old sex trafficking organization. Little does she know she's about to be purchased... As the head of the powerful Consortium, Sir exudes power, confidence, and male charm. When he purchases Avril for his own secret pleasures, he shivers at the thought of orchestrating her delicious screams. Handcuffed to Sir's dark desires, Avril's only chance for survival depends on thoroughly pleasing her intrigued master. As the man's twisted pleasures expand, can Avril endure long enough to outwit the sadistic punisher or will her tight tether be the last thing she sees? The Trafficking Consortium is the first book in a dark human trafficking series suitable for ages 18 and over. If you like disturbing details, charming villains, and desperate heroes, you'll love Richard Verry's tie-you-in-knots thriller. Asian empires led the world economically, scientifically and culturally for hundreds of years, and posed a constant challenge to the countries of Europe. How and why did those empires gain such power, and lose it? What legacies did they leave? This major book brings together a team of distinguished historians and 200 illustrations to survey seven great Asian empires that rose and fell between 800 CE and the mid-20th century: the Mongol Empire, Ming Dynasty of China, Khmer Empire, Ottoman Empire, Safavid Empire of Persia, Mughal Empire of India and the Meiji Restoration in Japan. Splendidly illustrated and compellingly written, The Great Empires of Asia shows how those seven empires played a key role in forming today's global civilization and how, with the renewed ascendancy of Asia, their legacies will help shape the continent's future.

The Great Empires of Asia Penguin Random House South Africa This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection. To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015, the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1,100 titles from Penn Press's distinguished backlist from 1899-1999 that had fallen out of print. Spanning an entire century, the Anniversary Collection offers peer-reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas. A Shameful Experiment New York : Golden Press

"ANOTHER GREAT TREAT FOR SPARROWHAWK FANS...

ENTHRALLING... A MUST READ."It is the year 2999. On the borders of Man's vast Empire, the barbarians are preparing for war. The young women abducted when the Evening Star was attacked, have been sold in the slave markets of Akkadis: some to the planet's notorious 'pleasure houses' and others to the Arena, where they will compete in the terrifying Games. But Kyra and Millie, two of the most beautiful captives, will face a different destiny altogether. They are sent as gifts to the Kzam of Ziandakush, to be trained to become concubines in his harem. But there is a traitor in the Kzam's court, and Kyra will become an unwitting pawn in a plot against the barbarian tyrant. And on Akkadis, Mrs Knott's clumsy attempt at blackmail fails with disastrous consequences for guilty and innocent alike, while Amanda's desperate bid to regain her freedom and avenge her family will spark off a diplomatic incident which will plunge the known galaxy into cataclysmic war."THIS LATEST OFFERING FROM HENRY SPARROWHAWK CONFIRMS HIS PLACE AS THE LEADING WRITER OF ADULT SCIENCE FICTION AND SPACE OPERA OF THIS GENERATION... Through a mishap in Professor Bulfinch's laboratory, Danny accidentally creates an anti-gravity paint. The natural use, of course, is for a spaceship -- the paint can replace rockets to get the ship into space. Unfortunately, the spaceship is launched prematurely after Danny and Joe follow Professor Bulfinch and Dr. Grimes on a tour of the ship. A mechanical failure dooms the four to a one-way trip out of the Solar System -- unless they can repair the spaceship in time! This is the first of the 15-volume Danny

Dunn series and features the original cover by acclaimed artist Ezra Jack Keats. Look for "Danny Dunn on a Desert Island," the second volume of the series, coming soon from Wildside Press! The Abyssinian Oxford : Clarendon Press

In an effort to escape her troubles on Earth, nineteen-year-old Tilly Squires inadvertently stows away aboard a spacecraft headed for Saturn, but when she ends up damaging equipment critical to the ship's research mission she finds herself the subject of an entirely new experiment.

Bryn Mathews was ambitious. She wanted to be a famous correspondent, so she went alone to interview the leader of a notorious terrorist band to get an exclusive interview. But instead of a big story, she became the sex toy of the terrorists for a night, and then their prisoner. After that, her luck turned bad, when she was purchased at auction to be a sex slave of the notorious Rupert Caine. This is the first new novel in the By Judicial Decree series since 2018, and as always with Commander James Bondage novels, it is chock-full of hot bondage and sex scenes. Excavations at Tepe Hissar, Damghan Wildside Press LLC Uncovers the fascinating world of forensic anthropology and how information from bones is used to solve mysteries both modern and ancient.

Swallowed by the Sea: Three Novels contains all the stories to date in this popular BDSM series. In Mr. Stern's Island, the daughters of billionaire Charles Pennington and their tutor are rescued from their stricken yacht in a violent storm, only to find they have been abducted by their father's vengeful enemy, Robert Stern. Inside his secret island hideaway, he trains the girls as sex slaves, as part of a plan to use them as bait for Charles. In Reunion, the Pennington girls' beautiful stepmother Katherine is caught in Stern's web, and cruelly forced to become his obedient toy. In the third book, Hostile Takeover, Stern abducts fellow billionaire Sidney Collins' wife and daughters at the latter's request, when he discovers they had been planning to murder him for his fortune. Elinor, Juliette and Gloria Collins are no more able to withstand Stern than the Penningtons, as they are reduced to complete submission in their captor's dungeons The Last Resort British Archaeological Reports Limited Despite the tremendous shock of the Battle of Kadesh, Ramses has not managed to bring the formidable Hittite might to its knees. Rather than continue the struggle, he decides to engage in negotiation. But more important than anything to Ramses is the love he bears the Great Royal Consort, and he decides to offer Nefertari the most fabulous of gifts: at Abu Simbel two temples will be built - symbols of their eternal love. Meanwhile shadows are gathering, from Nubia to the sovereign's own capital of Pi-Ramses and Ramses must come face to face with Moses, the childhood friend whom he had lost sight of for so many years: Moses, who has returned to Egypt to demand the exodus of the Hebrew people.

When in 1925 the initiative was taken by the Kern Institute Leiden to start the publication of an Annual Bibliography of Indian Archaeology, the Board of the Institute could do so with confidence, as it was sure of the assistance of scholars all over the world as to the supply of publications as well as of information. With the help of this material a bibliography could be compiled by a small team of highly skilled archaeologists who could devote part of their time and attention to such a task for the benefit of their colleagues in all parts of the world. Times since then have changed, and circumstances have become less and less favourable. To find classified labour for the compilation and editing of such a bibliography has become extremely difficult, and this the more so as this work cannot be paid in accordance with the standards for this branch of classified documentation. The work has to be done as a part of the daily routine work even a scholar in today's time is expected to perform, and which he cannot but consider as being detrimental to the performing of those parts of his work, that demand the use of those qualifications that actually make him the expert.

POLITICIANS AND A TWISTING PLOT... SPARROWHAWK IS ON TOP FORM."The Imperial Fleet has suffered a surprise attack. The result is worse than a defeat: it is a rout, complete and utter. The known galaxy is plunged into war and the Atkoi horde advance into Imperial space. Those caught in the path of the barbarian horde will pay a terrible price for the Empire's weakness and misgovernment. On the conquered planets, the barbarians are looting and pillaging, and 'harvesting' young women, conscripting them to serve in military brothels for Atkoi troops. Those who flee the advancing enemy face other dangers: refugees risk being robbed, murdered or sold into slavery. Even the Imperial capital on Nenuphar falls to the invaders, and Atkoi berserkers pillage the Emperor's palace and harem. On Ziandakush, Princess Athanasia's treasonous plot has terrible consequence, and Kyra faces a horrible dilemma: to face a hideous death, or confess to a capital crime she did not commit, and beg for mercy. But one man has a plan to fight back against the Kzam's forces. Admiral George Barklay intends to carry the battle to the enemy, but he cannot possibly anticipate Kyra's courageous actions, or their consequences for Empire and Atkoi alike. "BREATHTAKING... Thrilling, heartbreaking, and, at times, absurdly funny, The Last Resort is a remarkable true story about one family in a country under siege and a testament to the love, perseverance, and resilience of the human spirit. Born and raised in Zimbabwe, Douglas Rogers is the son of white farmers living through that country's long and tense transition from postcolonial rule. He escaped the dull future mapped out for him by his parents for one of adventure and excitement in Europe and the United States. But when Zimbabwe's president Robert Mugabe launched his violent program to reclaim white-owned land and Rogers's parents were caught in the cross fire, everything changed. Lyn and Ros, the owners of Drifters—a famous game farm and backpacker lodge in the eastern mountains that was one of the most popular budget resorts in the country—found their home and resort under siege, their friends and neighbors expelled, and their lives in danger. But instead of leaving, as their son pleads with them to do, they haul out a shotgun and decide to stay. On returning to the country of his birth, Rogers finds his once orderly and progressive home transformed into something resembling a Marx Brothers romp crossed with Heart of Darkness: pot has supplanted maize in the fields; hookers have replaced college kids as guests; and soldiers, spies, and teenage diamond dealers guzzle beer at the bar. And yet, in spite of it all, Rogers's parents—with the help of friends, farmworkers, lodge guests, and residents—among them black political dissidents and white refugee farmers—continue to hold on. But can they survive to the end? In the midst of a nation stuck between its stubborn past and an impatient future, Rogers soon begins to see his parents in a new light: unbowed, with passions and purpose renewed, even heroic. And, in the process, he learns that the "big story" he had relentlessly pursued his entire adult life as a roving journalist and travel writer was actually happening in his own backyard. Evoking elements of The Tender Bar and Absurdistan, The Last Resort is an inspiring, coming-of-age tale about home, love, hope, responsibility, and redemption. An edgy, roller-coaster adventure, it is also a deeply moving story about how to survive a corrupt Third World dictatorship with a little innovation, humor, bribery, and brothel management.

This is a story in two parts previously published as Mr. Stern's Island and Family Reunion. Mr. Stern's Island: Just as the daughters of billionaire Charles Pennington are about to be swallowed by the sea, they are rescued from their sinking yacht by the crew of a mysterious submarine. But they soon find out that neither the sinking of the Atlantic Wanderer nor their rescue are accidental. 18 year old Alex and 21 year old Caroline, along with their chaperone Karen Andrews, have been taken by the reclusive Robert Stern as part of his plan for revenge against Charles. Stern plans to break both girls and train them to be his slaves, then use them as bait to draw Charles Pennington into his trap. Step-sisters Alex and Caroline have no defences against the cruel bondage and ingenious torments inflicted on them by the implacable Stern in his island hideaway. Family Reunion: A wrench is thrown into Stern's plans when Charles Pennington is killed in an air crash, thus depriving him of the main object of his wrath. Fortunately for Stern a substitute is available: the beautiful widow Katherine Pennington. Stern has he snatched and brought to his secret island headquarters to be punished in place of Charles, which will involve turning her into a submissive sex-toy. Annual Bibliography of Indian Archaeology Simon and Schuster One hundred years ago, four crewmembers of the "U.S.S Enterprise" crossed the dimensional barrier and found a mirror image of their own universe, populated by nightmare duplicates of their shipmates. Barely able to escape with their lives, they returned, thankful that the accident which had brought them there could not be duplicated, or so they thought. But now the scientists of that empire have found a doorway into our universe. Their plan is to destroy from within, to replace a Federation Starships with one of their own. Their victims are the crew of the "U.S.S. Enterprise NCC-1701-D, who now find themselves engaged in combat against the most savage enemies they have ever encountered, themselves.
