Jesus chose twelve average men to be his closest disciples. They were fishermen, a tax collector, a twin, a rebel, and brothers. They were believers and doubters, sometimes courageous and sometimes cowardly. For three years, Jesus shared his wisdom with them and gave his life for them. In just a couple of decades, these men "turned the world upside down" (Acts 17:6). Who were these regular guys Jesus chose? What can we learn from their lives? What does it mean for us to be disciples of Jesus?

Answering these questions is what this study is all about.

Sessions: 1. Discipleship, 2. Peter and Andrew, 3. James and John, 4. Matthew and Thomas, 5. Philip and Nathanael, 6. James, Thaddaeus, Simon, and Judas, Features include: Quick facts about each disciple, Charts and full-color pictures, Thought-provoking questions, Practical life application, Leader's guide Book jacket. Is there enough evidence to believe Jesus rose from the dead, or must such a judgment be based only on faith? Can the resurrection story be considered a fact of history, or should it be viewed as an ahistorical account? Two renowned professors, atheist Carl Stecher and Christian Craig Blomberg, engage in a groundbreaking new debate on these very questions. Other experts on the resurrection, atheist Richard Carrier and Christian Peter S. Williams, comment on the outcome. Presenting new approaches to these centuries-old questions and taking into account the latest scholarly research, Resurrection: Faith or Fact? is a must-have not only for all those following the resurrection question—but also for those skeptics and Christians alike who are interested in determining for themselves the truth behind this foundational doctrine of the Christian faith.

John MacArthur's collection of the Bible verses that every Christian needs to know. All of Scripture is important and meaningful, but there are certain passages that are most helpful for becoming grounded in God's truth. In The Heart of the Bible, Pastor John MacArthur shares a selection of verses that he believes are most significant—the ones he considers the heart of the Bible. Written in a devotional style, each verse is followed by John MacArthur's thoughts and comments, giving you a deeper understanding of the passages and their importance to Christians. The verses focus on the nature of the Bible, God, salvation, and discipleship, and are categorized topically. Some of the topics covered are: Knowing and trusting our great God What happened at the cross Accepting God's salvation Living worthy of our calling What it means to follow Jesus These treasured pieces of Scripture are not just meant to be read—they're meant to be savored, repeated, and meditated on. Open your heart to God's Word and you will be transformed. John MacArthur- "Unleashing God's Truth One Verse At a Time"™

In the Gospel of John, Jesus uses "I Am" statements that tell his listeners exactly who he is: the Bread of Life; the Light of the World; the Gate; the Good Shepherd; the Resurrection and the Life; the Way, the Truth, and the Life; and the True Vine. "In His Introduction to A Course in Miracles Jesus says: 'This is a Course in Miracles, it is a required Course. Only the time you take it is voluntary. Free will does not mean that you can establish the curriculum. It means only that you may elect what you want to take at a given time.' There is a purpose to our lives! we are here to learn something about Miracles, and we cannot avoid learning it. The only choice we have is to procrastinate the inevitable. It should be noted, however, the Miracle in A Course in Miracles has a very unique and definition and function. Dr. Bonnie Nack is a long time student/teacher of A Course in Miracles who has taken the time to go deeply into her study of the Course and bring forth some of its most remarkable gems putting them on display. The Course is not easy, but it is oh, so very rewarding once the student begins to apply its principles. By applying these principles, a new way of Thinking and Being is manifest, the light at the end of tunnel is seen, and you know that by following this guide you will indeed find your way Home.
