This dissertation will provide a proper understanding of the role and responsibilities of the assistant pastor. It will present a forum for experienced men in ministry to train younger men in ministry. It will be written in such a way that will allow a senior pastor and his assistant to have in-depth discussions concerning ministry practice and philosophy. It will help an assistant pastor in developing his philosophy and provide the senior pastor an opportunity to crystallize his own thinking regarding the practice and philosophy of his ministry. Concluding each division will be a "Points to Ponder" section providing specific questions to be discussed.

- Statement of purpose.

The original mandate given to man in Genesis 1v28 was to "subdue and have dominion".

Unfortunately when Adam & Eve sinned against god, they lost their connection with God, and lost their spiritual authority.

Jesus came to give us back our relationship with God, and our assignment of dominion again. Jesus demonstrated the message, He lived out the message of bring heaven to earth where ever he was. He first called 12, then 70, and finally entrusted all believers with the assignment to go, as ambassadors of the Kingdom, to proclaim the gospel, to make disciples, to heal the sick, to cast out demons, raise the dead - to minister in power and signs and wonders. Gods purpose in creating man has never changed, He has something for us to accomplish, to bring our lives and community into harmony with heaven. We need to understand our mission in life, and learn how to fulfil it, how to exercise spiritual authority over all spiritual resistance. Contents: 1. The Apostolic mandate 2. Understanding your spiritual "metron" 3. How you exercise spiritual

authority 4. Exercising authority in your personal life 5. Your authority to minister to people 6. Strengthening your spirit man Appendix A. Keys to ministering in the spirit B. Practical guidelines C. House cleaning The Apostolic Mandate Jesus authority to do miracles came from the Father, who SENT him. We are also "apostolic" because we are SENT, as as ambassadors of heaven, to	fulfil our task with kingly authority. It is important we discover for ourselves what God has called us to do, and passionately pursue the mission that God has wired into our heart. It requires we take ownership of it; see people as God sees them, and execute on earth the judgements of heaven. Identifying Your Spiritual Territory Activations to develop spiritual strength & sensitivity.	Every believer has a spiritual territory (metron) entrusted to us, a sphere of influence which is ours to govern - some permanent, some temporary. Adam was instructed to "tend", cultivate, develop his territory and to "keep" or protect it from the enemy. Learn valuable keys to on how to govern, what to govern, and the consequences of failure to govern. How to Exercise

Spiritual Authority Further activations to stir and awaken you inner man quickly, give voice to faith decrees, and release a spirit flow. Understand the real meaning of: authority; power; legal rights; and what Jesus accomplished at the cross to disarm spiritual powers. Know what we have delegated power to do, and foundations which have to be built in our life to ensure	success. Finally, how to forbid troubling spirits and release blessing. Plenty of practical examples in workplace, marriage, family life etc. Exercising Authority in your Personal Life The first place to gain dominion is with yourself. Eph. 4:27 shows us we can give the devil a foothold, or legal doorway to access our life, creating negative energies. A check-list of common	doorways, and practical steps on how we can take responsibility for our life and close down these gateways. Strengthening Your Spiritual Life This session starts off with clear instructions on how to receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit, and the Gift of Tongues. Mike then describes the functions of our spirit - our life source, able to energise and illuminate our whole body, illuminate our mind, release creativity,

 The Pastor's Handbook (KJV) is intended to meet the continuing need of the Christian minister for guidance and forms as he does the work of the ministry. It seeks to offer options to suit the tastes of the pastor and congregation within the parameters of quality, beauty and dignity. To this end, numerous changes, both large and small, have been made—more selected Scriptures, new alternatives for special occasions, some significant additions and changes. At the same time, every effort has been made to keep the book concise and compact to maximize its usefulness. The formulas should be sufficient for the ordinary needs of the minister. They may be modified or supplemented by materials from the pastor's private collection or his own preparation. Some who stress liberty in prayer and preaching dislike set forms, preferring spontaneity and a free style as they worship. If the spiritual vitality of a church is maintained there need be no fear that these forms will become lifeless rituals. The use of forms should never become merely formal. And if the use of forms adds beauty and dignity to the atmosphere of sacredness, who can object? May the blessing of God attend all who glean from this manual, enabling it them to know what to say and how to say it. This is made also for allowing them to know what to do and how to do it especially as the occasion requires. Gratitude is expressed to many pastors and contributors for this volume. Includes the: worship service, baptism, communion, funerals, anointing services, healing services, membership, installation, baby and child dedication, consecration services, ceremonies for buildings and visitation.

channel for heaven coming to earth, for His presence and goodness and healing and love and peace and prosperity to flow through you, and to manifest in the world around you. So in the course we'll be teaching about that supernatural dimension. We'll teach about how miracles are activated, what the keys are around that. We'll teach you what the foundational key is, is out of intimacy with God and hearing the voice of God, and we'll give you practical steps, practical keys, how to start from wherever you are right now, and step by step grow your faith, so you can be starting to operate successfully, and regularly and confidently in the gifts of the spirit. So in the course we'll teach on the gifts of the spirit, we'll give you a little bit about each. We'll also give you some foundational understanding about the spirit man, and how God works in and through us. Also if you're watching this by DVD you'll see demonstration s of the power of God touching people, you'll see demonstration s of how to move in words of knowledge, hearing the voice of God, minister to people. You'll see all of that in this course, and it will inspire you and help you. God's given me ability to make it extremely clear, and I know that you're going to really enjoy this. Put in the effort. Invest in yourself. Do the course, and put into practice the things you learn, and you'll just be overjoyed when you see God is far more willing to work through you, than you really realise. His plan is that the kingdom come into the earth through you. All you've got to do is learn how to do it. In 1

Corinthians, Chapter 12, Verse 1, Paul says I don't want you to be ignorant of spiritual gifts, and this course is to help solve that problem. God bless you. Have a great time on the course and may you extend the kingdom of God boldly Tyndale House Palmer Becker helps pastors organize their ministry and multiply their effectiveness. This detailed how-to manual explains how to recruit, train, and supervise a team of small-group leaders for ministry in the church. In this model, a minister becomes pastor to the pastors, offering care and support to the group leaders, who in turn care for and support others. A companion manual, Called to Care, specifically addresses group leaders, challenging and training them to lead small groups.

 Volume 2 of this training manual will

 Proverbs
 chapters 10-21. As stated in volume 1, the book of Proverbs teaches practical wisdom to everyone who desires to gain a greater understanding of everyday life situations through observation and practical application. The goal of this book is to write a training manual from the book of Proverbs geared towards African American (Hebrew) men between the ages of 20-40 years old. The purpose of the book is to design a Christian discipleship curriculum which contains thirty-one chapters. Each chapter will contain a least one lesson but it could be more. It all depends on how many different topics are discussed in each chapter. I chose the book of Proverbs because the writer deals with so many topics that are relevant to young African-American (Hebrew) men. This training manual is consistent with the core values of my ministry Every Man Pastors His Own House. I believe that every (Hebrew) Christian man is responsible for pastoring his wife and his children. The pastor's job is to properly disciple each man (with the help of other Godly men and the power of the Holy Spirit) enabling them to gain the tools needed to pastor their families. This training manual will give them practical ways to accomplish this tremendous task of pastoring their families in the United States of America where men are sexually perverted, feminized (skinny jeans), women are taught to be masculine and un-submissive to their husband and children are indoctrinated with the belief the homosexuality is good for American values. This training manual can be used by any pastor or layperson who desires to disciple African-American (Hebrew) men enabling them to be re-established as head of their homes and leaders in the Christian Church strengthening the African-American family in Christ Jesus. Before I begin unpacking Proverbs 10-21, I must help the reader understand why Hebrew wisdom as knowledge was a vital part of the wisdom tradition during King Solomon's day.

The ministers and church-workers should be trained well so that they can perform well, and do God's Assignments for them faithfully and satisfactorily. Many are in the ministry today without adequate training, and they have either messed things up or performed, by far, below God's Expectation from them. A minister is not supposed to be a novice, and he is to hold the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience. The Word says, "If you instruct the brethren in these things, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished in the Words of Faith and of the Good Doctrine which you have carefully followed" (1 Tim. 4:6).

EQUIPPING DISCIPLES WHO MAKE DISCIPLES

Wipf and Stock Publishers
This manual is designed to equip the raising and releasing of pastoral ministry in the local church. It is a comprehensive training resource for those who have a strong focus on providing pastoral support (such as Pastors or members of a pastoral team), or those who simply want to explore whether a caring ministry is for them. It is also very relevant to anyone who has a pastoral aspect to their ministry, for example: Small group leaders Team leaders who have a pastoral remit for people on their teams Any Christian who naturally cares for others, without having an 'official' ministry role in a local church. This training can be used for personal or group study. It covers lessons on: The importance of pastoral ministry The role of Pastors and a pastoral team Skills needed to provide effective pastoral care Pointers on how to support people with specific issues such as grief, marriage problems, mental health, etc.

Most seminary graduates will begin their ministries with plenty of important head knowledge to share--but with a deficit of some of the most practical aspects of doing ministry, such as - which ministry role most suits them - how to start out strong at a new church - persevering during difficult seasons of ministry - leading meetings and delegating tasks - safeguarding their family - fighting discourageme
