WJEC A2 Chemistry Letts Educational

This is an ebook version of the "Advanced Study Guide - Chemistry - Ed 1.0" published by Step-by-Step International Pte Ltd. [For the Higher 2 (H2) syllabus with last exam in 2016.] This ebook gives concise illustrated notes and worked examples. It is organised largely accordingly to the Singapore-Cambridge GCE A-Level Higher 2 (H2) syllabus, with additional topics to cover the equivalent syllabuses of the University of Cambridge International Examination (CIE) A Level

(Core & A2), and the International Baccalaureate (IB) Higher Level (Core & AHL). The concise notes cover essential steps to understand the relevant theories. The illustrations and worked examples show essential workings to apply those theories. We believe the notes and illustrations will help readers learn to "learn" and apply the relevant knowledge. The ebook should help readers study and prepare for their exams. Relevant feedbacks from Examiner

Reports, reflecting what the examiners expected, are incorporated into the notes and illustrations where possible, or appended as notes (NB) where appropriate. It is also a suitable aid for teaching and revision. Sample pages are available (in .pdf) from our website.

Three sets of ocean liners, each destined to be of three vessels, dominated the Atlantic in the Edwardian era. The race to build the biggest and the best began with Mauretania and Lusitania in 1906, followed by the White Star Line's Olympic and Titanic in 1911-12. Each of these pairs was to see a larger sister, developed as a result of changes needed or desired as a result of operating the two earlier vessels, with Cunard's being Aquitania and White Star's, the ill-fated

Britannic. Germany's answer to these British behemoths was the Albert-Ballin designed trio of Imperator, Vaterland and Bismarck. Through misfortune or war, two of these vessels would sink but the others led useful lives, with Aquitania surviving two world wars before being scrapped. Designed to be the absolute engineering achievements of their time, these nine vessels dominated the Atlantic. J. Kent Layton tells the story of the Edwardian Superliners in this fabulously illustrated volume, showcasing many images previously unpublished and never before seen. Rarely can one describe a book as definitive, but this volume truly deserves the accolade.
