Business
Communicatio n: Developing Leaders for a Networked
World, by Peter Cardon,
puts students
at the center of business communication through the author's unique focus on credibility woven throughout the textbook chapters, forward-looking vision built on traditional concepts, and practitioner and case-based approach. Students are more likely to read and reflect on the text, and are better positioned to understand the essentials of efficient and effective business communication, thereby transforming them into leaders for a networked world.

research in planning and evaluating PR campaigns. Revised and expanded to reflect today's emphasis on standards-based practice, the third edition has a heightened emphasis on setting baselines, creating benchmarks, and assessing progress. Stacks presents step-by-step guidelines for using a wide range of qualitative and quantitative methods to track output, outtakes, and outcomes, and shows how to present research findings clearly to clients. Every chapter features review questions and a compelling practice problem. PowerPoint slides for use in teaching are provided at the companion website. Instructors requesting a desk copy also receive a supplemental Instructor's Manual with a test bank, suggested readings, and case studies. New to This Edition:

*Chapter on standardization, moving beyond the prior edition's focus on best practices.
*Chapter on different types of data sets, with attention to the advantages and disadvantages of using Big Data.
*Addresses the strategic use of key performance indicators.
*Covers the latest content analysis software.
Pedagogical Features:
*Each chapter

opens with a chapter overview and concludes with review questions.

*End-of-chapter practice problems guide readers to implement what they have learned in a PR project.

*Appendix provides a dictionary of public relations measurement and research terms.
