begins with Antigone meeting her sister Ismene near the central door of the palace. Antigone starts the scene with talking about their family suffering because of their family curse and how King Creon has declared that their brother Eteocles was to be buried with military honors, while their brother Polyneices body shall lie in the fields, never to be honored but to be left for animals to eat.Summary - Antigone:Prologue and Scene OneIn Sophocles's prologue, Ismene states "[She] has no strength" for burying Polynices against the states' jurisdiction, while Antigone pronounces that Ismene "use[s] that excuse" to avoid trouble (Sophocles 76-83). Even though Ismene says she doesn't have the strength to go against the state, she really means that she doesn't have the willpower to choose between the Gods' and Creon's law because defying either law will result in punishment.Antigone: Prologue and Parados Essay - 873 WordsAntigone Study Guide Prologue And Parados | pdf Book ...
