"Bessie Head's short stories have an extraordinary simplicity and breadth of vision," heralded a review in The Tribune after publication of Head's first collection of short stories, The Collector of Treasures. Regarded today as one of Africa's best-known woman writers in English, Head draws on the rich oral tradition of southern Africa and masterfully applies storytelling's language and imagery. Carefully sequenced, the anthology gives special focus to village people from independence-era Botswana and the status, position, and plight of African women.

George Orwell set out 'to make political writing into an art', and to a wide extent this aim shaped the future of English literature - his descriptions of authoritarian regimes helped to form a new vocabulary that is fundamental to understanding totalitarianism. While 1984 and Animal Farm are amongst the most popular classic novels in the English language, this new series of Orwell's essays seeks to bring a wider selection of his writing on politics and literature to a new readership. In Politics and the English Language, the second in the Orwell's Essays series, Orwell takes aim at the language used in politics, which, he says, 'is designed to make lies sound truthful and murder respectable, and to give an appearance of solidity to pure wind'. In an age where the language used in politics is constantly under the microscope, Orwell's Politics and the English Language is just as relevant today, and gives the reader a vital understanding of the tactics at play. 'A writer who can - and must - be rediscovered with every age.' - Irish Times

Looking for a short-cut? A summary? It is very understandable. Reading is stressful because you have a whole lot to read when questions would be picked only from certain unknown units. You must read a full book, only to expect 10 questions. What if the examiner told you the exact portions you should perfect instead of brushing through everything? Then reading wouldn't feel as stressful! Since there are no such examiners around, this book is a great alternative. Examination malpractice is something you certainly do not want to engage in. If you are lucky and do not fall prey to the fake answers desperate people send you over the internet for your hard earned money, you would get caught in the act and forfeit your admission into the university. If you are lucky still, you will end up unable to defend your result during job interviews, and hence join the crowd who have good certificates and are unemployed. As a student, you have to read and pass your exams yourself. You have all it takes within you. All you need is the right tool. Jamb have announced that the recommended novel for the 2023/2024 literature in English examination is The Life Changer by Khadija Abubakar Jalli. The book is in the market with less than 100 pages. It would be given to you by Jamb during registration. You could skim through it quite easily and pass your exams. But sometimes you don't. Examiners target areas you think aren't important, and even though you've read the book thoroughly, they still catch you unawares. Some students are too smart albeit, and others enjoy what some people call goodluck, yet, most others fall through the tricks every single year. That is why it's so easy to make UTME and yet so easy to fail it. Every literature student sitting for JAMB should expect some very elusive questions from this novel. Jamb examiners are gracious at asking elusive questions. And a fail for literature is a fail for Law, for Mass Communication, English, Theater Arts, Philosophy, Psychology, etc. Poor you certainly do not want to disappoint your parents with a bad result. But if you fall for the elusive exam trick Jamb examiners will set in 2023 and 2014 or get fake answers while indulging in malpractice, you will fail your exam. But that is why I wrote this book. All you need is to equip yourself with the right tool. You would pass literature excellently if you knew the right answer to every question they ask- both from the literature text-book and the recommended story book. But what questions are they going to ask from the books? Made very affordable since you are a student, the 137-page length "Exact Questions You Should Expect From Literature In English 2023/2024" is definitely a must read for anyone who wants to write and pass their literature in English examination with flying colors without reading to exhaustion and in futility or involving in any form of examination malpractice. This book focuses on the structure and sociolinguistics of Nigerian Pidgin English. Its major aim is to serve as a compendium which touches different major aspects of NPE as it has been observed that earlier works in this area have focused only on one aspect or the other. It will offer a broad survey of the form and functions of Nigerian Pidgin (NP) in different domains. The book promises to investigate the use of NP in such domains as popular culture, advertisement, social media and online discussion fora. One major strong point of this volume is the fact that it will direct attention to different fertile areas of NP by focusing, inter alia, on its social functions, its morphology and syntax, its regional varieties, its (possible) use as a viable medium of instruction in school, the changing attitudes of people towards its use, the place of NP in relation to language planning and policy in Nigeria as well as sociolinguistic variation within NP. The book will make a significant contribution to the existing literature on NP as, unlike earlier studies in this area, it will explore the grammatical, sociolinguistic and perceptual aspects of the language. By bringing together the expertise of renowned Nigerian and international scholars who have conducted research in this area, the volume will be an essential resource for researchers, graduate and undergraduate students interested not only in Nigerian Pidgin but also on contact linguistics.

The compelling true story that inspired the hugely successful major ITV drama series HOME FIRES - now in its second season. The Second World War was the WI's finest hour. The whole of its previous history - two decades of educating, entertaining and supporting women and campaigning on women's issues - culminated in the enormous collective responsibility felt by the members to 'do their bit' for Britain. With all the vigour, energy and enthusiasm at their disposal, a third of a million country women set out to make their lives and the lives of those around them more bearable in what they described as 'a period of insanity'. Through archive material and interviews with many WI members, Julie Summers takes us behind the scenes, revealing their nitty-gritty approach to the daily problems presented by the conflict. Jambusters is the fascinating story of how the Women's Institute pulled rural Britain through the war with pots of jam and a spirit of make-do-and-mend.

WINNER OF THE BOOKER PRIZE 'So long as we are alive, so long as we feel, so long as we love, everything in us is an energy we can use' The narrator, Azaro, is an abiku, a spirit child, who in the Yoruba tradition of Nigeria exists between life and death. He is born into a world of poverty, ignorance and injustice, but Azaro awakens with a smile on his face. Nearly called back to the land of the dead, he is resurrected. But in their efforts to save their child, Azaro's loving parents are made destitute. The tension between the land of the living, with its violence and political struggles, and the temptations of the carefree kingdom of the spirits propels this latter-day Lazarus's story. Despite belonging to a spirit world made of enchantment, where there is no suffering, Azaro chooses to stay in the land of the Living: to feel it, endure it, know it and love it. This is his story. 'In a magnificent feat of sustained imaginative writing, Okri spins a tale that is epic and intimate at the same time. The Famished Road rekindled my sense of wonder. It made me, at age 50, look at the world through the wide eyes of a child' Michael Palin

THINGS FALL APART tells two overlapping, intertwining stories, both of which center around Okonkwo, a "strong man" of an Ibo village in Nigeria. The first of these stories traces Okonkwo's fall from grace with the tribal world in which he lives, and in its classical purity of line and economical beauty it provides us with a powerful fable about the immemorial conflict between the individual and society. The second story, which is as modern as the first is ancient, and which elevates the book to a tragic plane, concerns the clash of cultures and the destruction of Okonkwo's world through the arrival of aggressive, proselytizing European missionaries. These twin dramas are perfectly harmonized, and they are modulated by an awareness capable of encompassing at once the life of nature, human history, and the mysterious compulsions of the
