THE BEETHOVEN DUETS By Joe Procopio
The Beethoven Duets by Joe Procopio is a collection of duets that artist - composer Joe Procopio has adapted and arranged from the 9 Scherzi found in Ludwig van Beethoven's 9 Symphonies. These duets are the first of their kind in history making them noteworthy, unique and valuable. Each Scherzo is published not only for Clarinet but also for many other orchestral instruments. They are published individually for each instrument; in a Three Volume Collection with 3 Scherzi in each volume; and in a Complete Collection containing all three volumes. They are also available as a CD. Volume One has Scherzo No.1, Scherzo No. 2 and Scherzo No.3. Volume Two has Scherzo No.4, Scherzo No 5 and Scherzo No.6. Volume Three has Scherzo No.7, Scherzo No.8 and Scherzo No.9. The Complete Collection has all 3 Volumes for each instrument with all 9 Scherzi. What's more they will soon be published in the Procopio PlayAlong Music Program. This is an exclusive MP3 music audio program personally designed and developed in which Player 1 plays along with a music audio track for Player 2. "To be sure, The Beethoven Scherzi Duets for Clarinet are a marvel of Beethoven's skill with sections reaching the sublime. It is my deep felt personal belief that these Scherzi will bring you great pleasure and long lasting satisfaction." Joe Procopio AN INTRODUCTION TO THE BEETHOVEN DUETS By Joe Procopio Because of the complexities, range and sonorities inherent in all of the Beethoven Symphonies, it may seem impossible to transcribe any one movement as a duet that is true to the composer. Nevertheless, I believe these duets contain the heart, soul and essence of Beethoven's melodies, rhythms and expressions; even though these works are tiny when they are compared to the Master's great musical creations which have no equal. In fact, there is no comparison. However, my sincere hope is that since I have rendered some of Beethoven's music as duets, his music is now more readily available to all permitting a greater number of musicians and all the people who hear their performances to come to know and love a bit of the world's most valuable, breathtaking and beautiful music. In truth, Beethoven's music has stood the test of time. He astonished people in his day whenever he performed his music or had his music played. He still does today. To be sure, his music has enhanced and enriched the lives of many of us for over 200 years. In performing and listening to these Scherzi you will find the whole of each work a marvel of Beethoven's skill with sections reaching the sublime. Few composers have been able to write down on paper music of such incredible beauty that it reflects the awesome splendor of God's creation. What comes to mind immediately is Beethoven's "Pastoral" Symphony No. 6. It has been said, that much of his music mirrors not only the magnificence of God's creation but also the radiance of God the Creator himself. In any event, this music is simply amazing and awe-inspiring. A joy to listen to and to play. I know and can safely say without any hesitation or reservations that this collection will bring you much enjoyment.

DESCRIPTION JOE PROCOPIO LIVE IN CONCERT Solo Collection It has always been difficult for young musicians to find the virtuosity of improvised music by master musicians written out so that they may study the musical minds of those they admire. For example, Mozart, considered by many to be one of the greatest composers, once said: "It is a mistake to think that the practice of my art has become easy to me. I assure you, dear friend, no one has given so much care to the study of composition as I. There is scarcely a famous master in music whose works I have not frequently and diligently studied." Keep in mind that this was said by a master whose surviving music shows no erasures. He simply heard it in his head and wrote it down with no mistakes. In like manner, improvisation is composing music off-hand while composition is taking the time to think about your musical thoughts before writing them down. It is safe to say that some of the world's most beautiful music by masters such as Mozart and Beethoven has never been heard except by those who were there at the time because the technology to record improvised music simply wasn't available and their improvisations were never recorded. In like manner, if one sees their compositions as frozen improvisation, then the study of improvisation itself becomes another key for all musicians to unlock some of the mystery in making meaningful and long-lasting music. The following 8 transcriptions are written copies of improvised jazz solos recorded live and written down later. Here lies the wonder of recorded music. Now improvised music can be studied frequently and diligently. THE BEETHOVEN DUETS FOR CLARINET SCHERZO NO. 5

Alfred Music

In his tragically short life (1928–1964), Eric Dolphy was a titanic force in the development of the sixties avant-garde (or "new thing") from the hard bop of the late fifties. The searing intensity and sonic exploration of his work on alto sax, clarinets, and flute derived in part from the concurrent innovations of Coltrane, Mingus, Ornette Coleman, Cecil Taylor, and Andrew Hill, among others; previous jazz styles such as New Orleans and bop; various non-Western musics; and modern classical music (e.g., Varese). Dolphy pioneered extended solo jazz compositions, was prominent in the "third stream" movement (led by John Lewis and Gunther Schuller), and remains a major influence on musicians today for the personal, speech-like inflections of his playing. Jazz scholars Simosko and Tepperman examine every aspect of this stunning musical achievement from Dolphy's early big band work and association with Chico Hamilton to his own last groups in Europe, emphasizing the rich legacy of his recordings. Now completely updated to include the most recent discoveries concerning his life and recordings, this book will long stand as the definitive treatment of Eric Dolphy's music.
