Readers seeking to understand the resurgence of fascism in the world today should profit from Emilio Lussu's account. This is an autobiography through which the reader encounters men and women caught up in the brutalizing of a State whose opponents suffer the consequences of holding to principle. In Sardinia in the 1920's a bourgeois class fell easy prey to fascism. Lussu's personal, humorous, warm, perceptive, ironic and telling account of his own humiliation and punishment, affords the reader the unique perspective of a man at the centre of opposition to a movement which would eventually plunge Europe into war.

A VERY SHORT INTRODUCTION

Taschen

A book this genuine was needed! Sister Emmanuel offers through it a pure echo of Medjugorje, the eventful village where the Mother of God has been appearing since 1981. She shares at length some of the personal stories of the villagers, the visionaries, and the pilgrims who flock there by the thousands, receiving great healings. Ten years of awe have inspired this book. These 89 stories offer a glimpse into the miracles of Mary's motherly love. More than just a book, this is a (one-way) ticket to happiness! "This book fills me with joy, as I too am a supporter, protector and propagator of Medjugorje. Sister Emmanuel's presence in Medjugorje is providential: she has a charisma of clarity to explain in the messages and events of Medjugorje." Monsignor Frane Franic Archbishop Emeritus of Split (Croatia) "The Gospa is a Mom; she invites us to be her vehicles, really happy, and not floating in the clouds. She calls us to be concrete like her. That's why this book is important! It reveals the marvels our Mother works in our hearts, through Medjugorje. I pray to God for the readers: may this book help you, may these testimonies be an example to change your life." Marija Pavlovic-Lunetti One of the Visionaries at Medjugorje A must read! "The Hidden Child of Medjugorje" (2007) Fr. Jozo Zovko says, "In this book, Sr. Emmanuel has gathered the most beautiful pearls! She offers them to the reader that they may be enriched. It gives great joy, revealing facts, people and events of great value and teaching." Available in bookstores and online at: www.childrenofmedjugorje.com Ciclo: Fata Mysella Antonio Giangrande Situated within contemporary posthumanism, this volume offers theoretical and practical approaches to materiality in Greek tragedy. Established and emerging scholars explore how works of the three major Greek tragedians problematize objects and affect, providing fresh readings of some of the masterpieces of Aeschylus, Sophocles, and Euripides. The so-called new materialisms have complemented the study of objects as signifiers or symbols with an interest in their agency and vitality, their sensuous force and psychosomatic impact-and conversely their resistance and irreducible aloofness. At the same time, emotion has been recast as material "affect," an intense flow of energies between bodies, animate and inanimate. Powerfully contributing to the current critical debate on materiality, the essays collected here destabilize established interpretations, suggesting alternative approaches and pointing toward a newly robust sense of the physicality of Greek tragedy.

Il lavoro, precario, di Fabio consiste nel testare su strada i prototipi di nuovi scooter, gli scooter del futuro. Non importa che tempo faccia fuori, se sia giorno o notte, inverno o estate, asciutto o bagnato, lui è sempre lì, in mezzo al traffico, a percorrere i suoi trecentoquarantadue chilometri per tornare esattamente nel punto da cui è partito. Senza un significato, senza imparare niente, senza un vero perché. Ex pianista, mancato, di musica classica, orfano di madre e con un padre burbero con cui non riesce ad avere un rapporto sereno, Fabio fatica a sopravvivere alla vita della profonda provincia toscana, ed è un trentenne, solo, tradito, deluso che viaggia nella notte della propria giovinezza, arreso a un cinismo precoce e affamato, talmente avido da impedirgli di sognare un futuro diverso. L'incontro con Dana, però, rivoluziona la sua vita: la ragazza, con il suo profumo irreale di muschio, abete, incenso affumicato, rosa selvatica, oro, sottobosco, frutti rossi, edera, sconvolge Fabio nel profondo dell'anima e lo obbliga ad affrontare la frustrazione dell'oggi, seducendolo con un domani possibile, più dolce rispetto a quello previsto. Quando Dana decide di cambiare città per seguire il lavoro a cui ha sempre aspirato, Fabio è costretto a scegliere tra credere in una, poco possibile, vita diversa o arrendersi a un più tranquillizzante fallimento, tipico della sua generazione. Trecentoquarantadue è un romanzo che parla di crescita e di Mozart, di amore e solitudine, della precarietà del lavoro e dei sentimenti, del nuovo millennio e, più in generale, della natura della vita umana, così grande, eppure talmente piccola, che disorienta per la sua inafferrabilità. Antonio Giangrande, orgoglioso di essere diverso. ODIÒ OSTENTAZIONE ED IMPOSIZIONE. Si nasce senza volerlo. Si muore senza volerlo. Si vive una vita di prese per il culo. Tu esisti se la tv ti considera. La Tv esiste se tu la guardi. I Fatti son fatti oggettivi naturali e rimangono tali. Le Opinioni sono atti soggettivi cangianti. Le opinioni se sono oggetto di discussione ed approfondimento, diventano testimonianze. Ergo: Fatti. Con me le Opinioni cangianti e contrapposte diventano fatti. Con me la Cronaca diventa Storia. Noi siamo quello che altri hanno voluto che diventassimo. Facciamo in modo che diventiamo quello che noi avremmo (rafforzativo di saremmo) voluto diventare. Rappresentare con verità storica, anche scomoda ai potenti di turno, la realtà contemporanea, rapportandola al passato e proiettandola al futuro. Per non reiterare vecchi errori. Perché la massa dimentica o non conosce. Denuncio i difetti e caldeggio i pregi italiani. Perché non abbiamo orgoglio e dignità per migliorarci e perché non sappiamo apprezzare, tutelare e promuovere quello che abbiamo ereditato dai nostri avi. Insomma, siamo bravi a farci del male e qualcuno deve pur essere diverso!

 Mario Praz (1896-1982) was among the great scholar/critics of the last century. His studies of iconography and seventeenth-century art remain unsurpassed and indispensable. His most famous work, The Romantic Agony, examines the themes of sexuality and morbidity that permeated so much late-eighteenth and nineteenth-century literature. But The House of Life comes as close to his autobiography as anything we are likely to encounter, and it is a quirky and magical book. In simplest terms, it is a house tour, but Praz's Roman apartment was no ordinary house it was a wunderkammer, a house of wonders, rooms replete with objects d'art and sculpture, walls hung with paintings and prints, bureaus overflowing with postcards and ephemera. And Praz is no ordinary guide; he leads you, the reader, through each room lecturing on the objects therein. What emerge are his passions, his immense erudition, his insatiable curiosity, his undeniable amiability, his infectious enthusiasm. What might have been a predictable didactic exercise is transformed and expanded into a multi-layered disquisition on the nature of art, on the challenge of investigation and discovery, on the idiosyncracies of personalities, on the serendipitous way in which art and the objects we choose to surround us tell stories that go far beyond their purely physical attributes. Early on, Edmund Wilson recognized this book as a masterpiece, its author as something of a genius.

Among the most beloved saints in the Catholic tradition, Francis of Assisi (c. 1181-1226) is popularly remembered for his dedication to poverty, his love of animals and nature, and his desire to follow perfectly the teachings and example of Christ. During his lifetime and after his death, followers collected, for their own purposes, numerous stories, anecdotes, and reports about Francis. As a result, the man himself and his own concerns became lost in legend. In this authoritative and engaging new biography, Augustine Thompson, O.P., sifts through the surviving evidence for the life of Francis using modern historical methods. The result is a complex yet sympathetic portrait of the man and the saint. Francis emerges from this account as very much a typical thirteenth-century Italian layman, but one who, when faced with unexpected crises in his personal life, made decisions so radical that they challenge his own society-and ours. Unlike the saint of legend, this Francis never had a unique divine inspiration to provide him with rules for following the teachings of Jesus. Rather, he spent his life reacting to unexpected challenges, before which he often found himself unprepared and uncertain. The Francis who emerges here is both more complex and more conflicted than that of older biographies. His famed devotion to poverty is found to be more nuanced than expected, perhaps not even his principal spiritual concern. Thompson revisits events small and large in Francis's life, including his troubled relations with his father, his contacts with Clare of Assisi, his encounter with the Muslim sultan, and his receiving the Stigmata, to uncover the man behind the legends and popular images. A tour de force of historical research and biographical writing, Francis of Assisi: A New Biography is divided into two complementary parts—a stand alone biographical narrative and a close, annotated examination of the historical sources about Francis. Taken together, the narrative and the survey of the sources provide a much-needed fresh perspective on this iconic figure. "As I have worked on this biography," Thompson writes, "my respect for Francis and his vision has increased, and I hope that this book will speak to modern people, believers and unbelievers alike, and that the Francis I have come to know will have something to say to them today."

Carlo M. Martini was cardinal of the largest diocese in the world, a scholar, and one of the most renowned men of the church. Georg Sporschill has worked in prisons and lived with drug-addicted street children in Romania and Moldavia. The two Jesuits met in Jerusalem and became friends: two worlds, one faith--and a passionate search for ways in which the message of Jesus of Nazareth can still be effective for tomorrow. In a series of conversations they ask what faith can mean for life, what future young people have in the church, and what must be changed so that Christianity itself has a future. The questions from young people are the catalyst for deep thought. Is the future only dark? Where are the rays of light on the horizon? What would Jesus say today?

Il saggio conduce il lettore in maniera colloquiale ed informale, ma allo stesso tempo rigorosa, tra i meandri del rapporto "normale/pazzo". Da un lato il paziente, dall'altro l'infermiere; sullo sfondo il loro medesimo contesto sociale da cui entrambi vengono valutati. L'analisi della pazzia attraverso un'ottica sociale e multidisciplinare. Il saggio si presenta con una introduzione-saggio sulla pazzia di stampo antropologico, un'intervista ad infermiere specializzato con successivi commenti. Un danzare leggero tra discipline diverse per meglio gustare il forte sapore della pazzia nel paziente, ed il suo retrogusto agro-dolce nell'infermiere.
