PRAYER AS LISTENING

Baker Books

Empowers the preacher to understand the role of wise leader to which he or she has been called, and to claim that role with conviction and joy. Pastors are called to an exciting ministry of proclamation and leadership. That excitement, however, often turns to demoralization and burnout as pastors become increasingly uncertain of what their role is supposed to be. Competing claims by the congregation, the denomination, and society about who and what the pastor is supposed to be breed confusion and disappointment. Are they primarily managers? Therapists? Fundraisers? A way out of this confusion lies in reclaiming the biblical understanding of who the pastor is. One of the biblical roles within the pastoral vocation that often goes neglected is that of wise teacher or sage. Scripture presents as a model of pastoral leadership those who interpret the word and will of God for daily living. Especially in their preaching, pastors are called to help the congregation understand their place in God's world. In this book, Alyce McKenzie lays out the four qualities of the wise teacher—the bended knee, the listening heart, the cool head, and the courageous voice—and encourages pastors to make each of these integral to their ministry and vocation. She goes on to demonstrate that the sermon is the prime opportunity to function in the role of wise teacher. She offers strategies for applying biblical wisdom to all areas of everyday life. The strategies include: (1) Preaching that is as sensory as life is; using imagery, metaphor, simile, and story to connect with people's emotions as well as their intellect. (2) Preaching that uses first-person experiences without being narcissistic. (3) Preaching that teaches without boring. (4) Preaching on public, often controversial issues that minimizes defensiveness and maximizes dialogue. Hearing God Kregel Publications God is speaking. Are you listening? Listen to My heart in the quiet of your heart . . . More. Life is full to overflowing, but we crave an illusive more. Via social networking, airwaves, and TV, our culture tells us to strive for more stuff, more activities, more adventure--you name it. Yet we are often left feeling unfulfilled and wanting. Judy Gordon Morrow discovered the more when her world was turned upside down and she knelt before God to seek Him and ask for His help. More than a decade ago, in tear-stained notebooks, she began to pen God's responses to her desperate prayers. Now, in The Listening Heart, Judy invites you to spend a year hearing from the God Who Speaks--the God who wants to speak to you. Each daily devotion echoes the Father's love and care for you, offering hope, comfort, encouragement, and more--a rich closeness with God that will satisfy the longings of your heart. A 365-Day Devotional InterVarsity Press

Know that your heart becomes the candle of the Lord when born again. In every believer, God gave His Spirit within the human spirit, which is the heart, so they would know the things of God. The candle of the Lord enables us to follow the leadership of the Holy Spirit and the Bible.

To clarify how the Holy Spirit leads a believer, God gave a conscience of right and wrong within every born-again person. When you give your heart to Jesus, you become born again with a flaming light of the truth and presence of God within you. A believer has the choice to dim his light or lose it by not following God's Word and the Holy Spirit's guidance in his heart or the choice to stay lit and on-fire by a pure heart, which enables him to discern right and wrong decisions and direction. Agree with God's Word before trusting your heart to lead you and before trusting supernatural guidance, a vision, dream, or word you thought was from God. Your heart motives are the foundation of everything you think, say, and do. Our motives guides us in life (Proverbs 4:23). Your motives guides your thoughts, decisions, words, actions, and destiny. Guard your heart with pure motives. Avoid wrong decisions that assumption produces and can cost your life, trauma, tragedy, or losing everything. Hear God by listening to your heart only when you have pure motives that agrees with God's Word!
