THEIR HISTORY AND ICONOGRAPHY

Columbia University Press
By far one of the most important objects of worship in the Buddhist traditions, the bodhisattva Avalokitesvara is regarded as the embodiment of compassion. He has been widely revered throughout the Buddhist countries of Asia since the early centuries of the Common Era. While he was closely identified with the royalty in South and Southeast Asia, and the Tibetans continue to this day to view the Dalai Lamas as his incarnations, in China he became a she—Kuan-yin, the "Goddess of Mercy"—and has a very different history. The causes and processes of this metamorphosis have perplexed Buddhist scholars for centuries. In this groundbreaking, comprehensive study, Chün-fang Yü discusses this dramatic transformation of the (male) Indian bodhisattva Avalokitesvara into the (female) Chinese Kuan-yin—from a relatively minor figure in the Buddha's retinue to a universal savior and one of the most popular deities in Chinese religion. Focusing on the various media through which the feminine Kuan-yin became constructed and domesticated in China, Yü thoroughly examines Buddhist scriptures, miracle stories, pilgrimages, popular literature, and monastic and local gazetteers—as well as the changing iconography reflected in Kuan-yin's images and artistic representations—to determine the role this material played in this amazing transformation. The book eloquently depicts the domestication of Kuan-yin as a case study of the indigenization of Buddhism in China and illuminates the ways this beloved deity has affected the lives of all Chinese people down the ages.

Kuan Yin, the ancient Chinese goddess of Compassion, is the principal goddess in the Eastern firmament. Wherever there are Chinese or Japanese speaking people in the world - in homes, restaurants, workplaces, small urban temples and shrines - Kuan Yin's image can be found. The ritual of consulting her has brought solace, hope and insight to countless people and it continues to be an integral part of the lives of tens of millions of people throughout the East today. Stephen Karcher's interpretation of this ancient text presents 'The 100 Poems of the Goddess', as relevant today as they were 1000 years ago, in an extremely easy to use and amazingly insightful form. Simply ask the oracle a question. By opening your heart to the answer, you allow yourself to be 're-arranged' by the symbol or figure Kuan Yin gives you. Then turn to the relevant page for that symbol in the book, where you will find directions to help you focus your energy and choose the right path to find an answer.

Awakening Your Divine Ka Hampton Roads Publishing

Kuan Yin is the most important, best-loved deity in the Chinese world. She is the living expression of compassion and the center of devotion in most Chinese homes and workplaces. Yet she is barely known in the West. The authors of The Kuan Yin Chronicles introduce Kuan Yin to Western readers, and reveal that Kuan Yin is the mystery and power of the divine feminine, who transcends all doctrines, creeds, and traditions. The book is divided into three sections: 1. The origins and evolution of Kuan Yin in early China, Buddhism, Taoism, and shamanism. 2. The myths and stories about Kuan Yin. 3. Fresh translations of 100 Kuan Yin poems, which function as both literature and tools for divination and prophecy. The Kuan Yin Chronicles is for any Western reader who wants to connect with the ancient power of the Goddess in their lives.

Leading experts consider how development programs can increase the levels of knowledge, skill, technical know-how and productive capacity of populations in the South. The volume is organized into three parts on ownership, institutional capital and knowledge networks. They explore the participatory empowerment that builds capacity, a framework enabling social forces to contribute, and a new paradigm of knowledge in the network age. The result shows how, in future productivity, capacity development through technical cooperation can be successfully pursued.

Sandy Boucher, celebrated author of Opening the Lotus and Turning the Wheel, now offers North American readers their first opportunity to share in Kwan Yin's illuminating wisdom. Along with providing meditations, chants, and prayers this lovely, illustrated volume recounts the stories of this bodhisattva (one who delays her own full enlightenment to work for the liberation of all beings) and explains Kwan Yin's role in Buddhism. Discovering Kwan Yin is sure to become an important spiritual touchstone for those who seek to celebrate the goddess in their lives, to give and receive the loving power of her presence.

A Gradual Awakening UCL Press
Life outside the mobile phone is unbearable.' Lily, 19, factory worker. Described as the biggest migration in human history, an estimated 250 million Chinese people have left their villages in recent decades to live and work in urban areas. Xinyuan Wang spent 15 months living among a community of these migrants in a small factory town in southeast China to track their use of social media. It was here she witnessed a second migration taking place: a movement from offline to online. As Wang argues, this is not simply a convenient analogy but represents the convergence of two phenomena as profound and consequential as each other, where the online world now provides a home for the migrant workers who feel otherwise 'homeless'. Wang's fascinating study explores the full range of preconceptions commonly held about Chinese people – their relationship with education, with family, with politics, with 'home' – and argues why, for this vast population, it is time to reassess what we think we know about contemporary China and the evolving role of social

Discovering Kwan Yin, Buddhist Goddess of Compassion Catapult

Kuan Yin's Miracle Mantras: Awakening the Healing Powers of the Heart" is based on decades of scientific research and both ancient and modern spiritual texts. It includes the direct experiences of the author and several contributors. This book is a key resource for anyone desiring to masterfully ride the waves of evolutionary change that humanity is currently undergoing. To ease this shift into post-2012 consciousness, the many tools and practices given here are based on the wisdom of the ancients (who foresaw these changes), coupled with its correlation to quantum science. The mantras in this book, especially "The Great Compassion Mantra," are particularly intended for use in our time for the clearing away of any past records holding back our spiritual evolution and forward progress. Who is Kuan Yin? Her story, legends and miracles are well known throughout most of Asia. Her name means "Hearer of Sounds." According to Eastern tradition, when Kuan Yin was about to enter heaven, she stood on the threshold and heard the cries of distress from the earth. She turned back to come to the aid of all who suffer in this plane. She is a cross-cultural figure revered by many traditions worldwide and is considered to be the essence or symbol of Divine Compassion. Many view her as both the impersonal and personal manifestations of Divine Mercy. Practices for nurturing the growth of this divine quality within ourselves and delivering it to the world are given in this book. Kuan Yin delivered The Great Compassion Mantra millennia ago so that "living beings may obtain peace and joy, be healed of illness, enjoy prosperity, erase past sins and offenses, remove hardship and suffering, and increase spiritual attainment and virtue." The mantras are for people of all faiths, and the information in these pages is also a valuable aid for anyone desiring to develop greater love, compassion and unity consciousness. And, of course, this book is for anyone who could use a few miracles! Part One, "The Essence of Divine Compassion," covers Kuan Yin's lore, origins and history. Her lineage from Amitabha to Avalokitesvara to Tara is included. Also in this section are chapters on her famous embodiments and legends, her island, and her etheric retreat. Part Two, "Tools for Accelerating Consciousness" covers the powers of mercy, forgiveness and compassion, the use of crystals, and techniques for entering into the "Zero Point of the Heart," which is a convergence point of all planes of consciousness, as well as a portal to higher dimensions. It covers the quantum mechanics of oneness (Unity Consciousness) and the use of the violet light as an energetic purifier. We learn the secrets of the science of sound through sonic healing and mantra, and how the use of visualization and feeling can accelerate the manifestation of a desired result. The phrase "HeartSound," coined by the author, represents the convergence of the key techniques explained. There are chapters on how to protect oneself from lower astral entities, and a collection of miracle stories and Kuan Yin's appearances in modern times. Part Three, "Miracle Mantras and Powerful Meditations," includes many of Kuan Yin's important ancient texts, such as "The Great Compassion Dharani Sutra" and "The Heart Sutra," with explanations and commentaries and how the Heart Sutra describes the Source Field or Zero Point Field. It reveals Kuan Yin's Ten Vows, and her Thirty-Three Miracle Mantra Ritual. The original Chinese and/or Sanskrit glyphs are often included, with their translations and pronunciation guides. The book concludes with a beautiful forgiveness meditation, and a summation of the Twelve Power Tools contained herein for self-transformation and manifestation. formation and manifestation.

The Gates of Truth are Numberless! "Sit with me in divine faith and believe in me. And I will be there!...I am energy manifested into form. I don't have any need for material things. Nor, do the laws of karma bind me. I'm free, without any karmic restraints. I don't get a reward for providing you with this information. Instead, I delight in helping to liberate souls. I come from a realm where there is instant, mind to mind understanding. There can be no lies; no misunderstanding. I'm a power magnet. I'll open the portal and what you need for your life will pour into you...When people acknowledge my presence, that's what makes it work. However, I will never force my memory on people. It's all a matter of Free Will. Free Will is very important. People must have Free Will to exist!" Kuan Yin In these interesting times, Bodhisattva Kuan Yin, provides

Her spiritual teachings for our modern era. Compassion at the level personified by Kuan Yin is not some luxury sentiment that might be expressed towards others at the appropriate moment. Indeed, it is foundational for our very humanity. Emphasizing faith, love and knowledge as the pathway to liberation, Mahāyāna Buddhism reveres Bodhisattva Kuan Yin, (She who hears the cries of the world) as their central figure of worship. Personal enlightenment, according to the above spiritual discipline, is manifested through compassion which forms the basis of all perfections. While, primarily aligned with Mahāyāna Buddhism, this manuscript also presents new spiritual dimensions. As is emphasized in this text, reciting Kuan Yin's mantra: Aum Mani Padme

Hum, allows one to call upon Her for help and comfort. While there are varying translations, among Kuan Yin's four traditional vows are: "The gates to truth are numberless." and "The way of awakening is supreme, I vow to realize." Within Buddhist tradition, Kuan Yin is known for Her infinite compassion and vow to relieve suffering for those living on earth. Herein, then, are the deity's sage words for how we, as eternal beings reincarnated on earth, can live in accordance with Her spiritual teachings. An alumni of the University of California, Santa Cruz, Hope Bradford CHT continued on to become a licensed Hypnotherapist. During a scheduled hypnosis sessions, her client, Lena Lees, began to spontaneously channel the modern spiritual teachings of Bodhisattva Kuan Yin. Having, for nearly two decades, written about and practiced these teachings, Ms. Bradford has experienced the profound peace and joy the Bodhisattva's wisdom can bring. Having again come for hypnosis and achieved her trance state, Ms. Lees once described a most exquisite "gateway to truth" "It's very interesting how Kuan Yin will manifest gifts for me. She has created a beautiful marble entrance-way that sits on a beach that I now can go through. Peering through this magical portal, I see Kuan Yin riding on a dragon. She is having such a good time! I hear Kuan Yin say, 'Come sit with this energy for awhile. It is an All-Knowing energy. There is so much beyond an earthly existence; when we leave our bodies. There is much work to do in these realms. There are so many souls that need help. I'm just asking you to send my message about this All-Knowing, limitless energy. Most people don't have the opportunity to experience this energy while still in a human body. Don't you know Lena that you can come here anytime?" Featuring a compendium summarizing the forty Kuan Yin Buddhism Universal Laws codifying humanity's primary resources of love and free will, the primacy of sound and frequency, true meditation, the infinite realms, the simultaneous nature of reality, Kuan Yin's Love and Forgiveness Principle and the multidimensional nature of reincarnation, this manuscript presents a tapestry of found pieces to the cosmic puzzle, based on astounding psychic phenomena. .

This stimulating, clearly written and well-structured text is a comprehensive introduction to the principles of management and organisational behaviour, as well as a corrective to the eurocentric bias of most management texts. It develops a trans-cultural perspective which draws on insights from across the world to examine different management styles, cultures and stages of business development. Contents include: * Orientation * Primal Management - Western including America * Rational Management - Northern including Scandinavia * Developmental Management - Eastern including Japan * Metaphysical Management - Southern including South Africa * Developing yourself as a manager Each section examines core management theory and literature, cultural orientation and related prominent theories. The numerous case studies use appropriate examples from a wide range of international organisations. The uniquely wide-ranging perspective make this a valuable text for all those interested in general management, international business, organisational behaviour and corporate strategy.

KUAN YIN

Sounds True

This book tells the story of how a minority community comes to grip with the puzzling drama of modernity, history, globalization, and cultural assertion in an ever changing Malaysia. It captures the religious connection, transformation, and tension within a complex traditional belief system in a multi-religious society. In particular, the book revolves around a discussion on the religious revitalization of Chinese Buddhism in modern Malaysia. This Buddhist revitalization movement is intertwined with various forces, such as colonialism, religious transnationalism, and global capitalism. Reformist Buddhists have helped to remake Malaysia's urban-dwelling Chinese community and have provided an exit option in the Malay and Muslim majority nation state. As Malaysia modernizes, there are growing concerns by certain segments of the country's ethnic Chinese Buddhist population to separate Buddhism from popular Chinese religions. Nevertheless, these reformist groups face counterforces from traditional Chinese religionists within the context of the cultural complexity of the Chinese belief system.

BECOMING GUANYIN

Becoming Kuan Yin The Evolution of

Compassion

In China and other parts of the Eastern Hemisphere, accounts of villagers having been visited by Goddess of Compassion and Mercy, Kuan Yin, have been handed down through the ages. While uncommon in the United States and the Western Hemisphere in general, such visitations are not completely unheard of. Along with Kuan Yin's profound parables and spiritual teachings, this manuscript chronicles the deity's numerous visitations to author Hope Bradford CHt following her transcribing of the book: Oracle of Compassion: the Living Word of Kuan Yin. A spiritualist and hypnotherapist, it was during that time that Kuan Yin promised to appear again to Ms. Bradford--that they enjoyed a very personal relationship. Included in this latest work, Kuan Yin Buddhism: Parables, Visitations and Teachings, Ms. Bradford delineates her amazing dreams and experiences with this revered deity of the Chinese Pantheon--that in addition to the originally-set down teachings, the ancient wisdom continues to this very day! At some point it was revealed that Hope's encounter and hence relationship with Kuan Yin was no accident: "Hope, Kuan Yin sends you bands of energy. The bands look almost like the Milky Way, where nebulae are constantly born. She sends these bands through you so that the wisdom can be spoken by me. We're a team. I can't do this without you! Now, I see Kuan Yin in such a beautiful form. Her countenance is such a brilliant white that there is a blue aura radiating out from Her." ~ Lena Lees "People want to know why I chose Lena and Hope to bring forth my message of loving-kindness to the world. It's alchemy! Lena and Hope's combined energy creates an open channel that I can manifest through. It is very rare in the world. It doesn't matter what nationality a person is. I can go wherever I want. I come to them because they are receptive." ~ Kuan Yin According to Kuan Yin, earth is the most important step in our evolution where we, as limitless, spiritual beings, achieve physical manifestation in all of its complexities; wherein beliefs, intentions and desires are the driving forces for the personal creation of reality. Indeed, the significance of the goddess's imaginative transformations is that they are metaphors for the personal transformation of thought into matter.

Beyond her shape-shifts are the goddess's profound parables demonstrating Her teachings on the nature of personal creation. Compassion at the level personified by Kuan Yin is not some luxury sentiment that might be expressed towards others at the appropriate moment. Indeed, it is at the very core of humanity's survival. And as Kuan Yin's Law of Compassion is intimately connected with all daily choices and emotions, such compassionate feelings on the part of the ego will join and expand the great rhapsody of light and sound stretching beyond any time/space constraints. In this book delineating the Kuan Yin Buddhism, the deity states: "I know the whole story. You're at page ten but I understand the entire evolution. In reality, it's already over. It's a dream. Remember? You're living a dream. It's very complicated to hold the dream and live the dream. You are learning the art of juggling the dream and the world of dreams!"Kuan Yin's profound teachings can help you understand: *Your purpose in life *The Love and Forgiveness Principle *How the moment is one's link to eternity *The power of sound and vibration *The power of imagination *Reincarnation *Love and relationships
