Red Pizzas for a Blue Count (Geronimo Stilton #7) Scholastic Inc.
Red Pizzas for a Blue Count Scholastic Inc.
Teacher/Pizza Guy is a collection of autobiographical poems from the 2016-17 school year in which Jeff Kass worked as a full-time English teacher and a part-time director for a literary arts organization and still had to supplement his income by delivering pizzas a few nights a week. In the collection, Kass is unapologetically political without distracting from the poems themselves but rather adds layers and nuances to the fight for the middle class and for educators as a profession. The timing of this book is beyond relevant. As a public high school teacher in America, Kass's situation is not uncommon. In September 2018, Time published an article detailing how many public school teachers across the country and in a variety of environments work multiple jobs to help make ends meet. Teacher/Pizza Guy chronicles Kass's experience of teaching, directing, feeding people, and treading the

balance of
holding
himself
accountable to
his wife and
kids, his
students, his
customers,
and his own
mental and
physical
health while working three
jobs in contemporary
America. The
journey of that
year was
draining, at
times
daunting, at
times
satisfying, but
always
surprising.
Many of the
ideas for
these poems
were initially
scribbled onto
the backs of

pizza receipts
or scratched
out during
precious free
moments
amidst the
chaos of the school day. A
driving force
behind the
book is Philip
Levine's poem
"What Work
Is," which Kass believes
attempts to
examine not
only the
dignity and
complexity of
what we think
physical,
tangible work
is but also the
exhausting,
albeit
sometimes
fulfilling
nature of
emotional
work.

and relatable
collection for

thinkers,

and pizza
lovers
