For generations mankind drifted in the depths of deep space, people were born and they died in transit. They were drifting and lost, looking for a new world to call home. In space without superluminal travel, time and distance are two cuffs on the same shackle. No matter how they tried, man was subject to space's long miles and its longer years. Eventually Oearth was found and settled, but it too had sustainability issues and eventually, people wanted more. It was through this necessity that the millennium project came to be. It was a last desperate attempt to cheat the relative bonds of time and space. Man wanted to travel the void in days instead of years. In the end, It was not man's desire to cooperate that brought the stars within reach, it was the maddening egos of two geniuses, Aldus Adalay and Hadrian Black. Both only wanted to prove the other wrong, in the process, they discovered The Pinch. This is the account of how man broke relativity...

Elle left home after college, in search of the father she had never known, only to discover untold heartache along the way caused by the Vengeful Demons MC. Now, a shell of her former self, Elle finds solace in the arms of Benelli. How can they find peace when a rival club is hell bent on revenge? When a trafficking ring gets a little close to home, The Unfortunate Souls MC takes matters into their own hands where Benelli and Elle get a little revenge of their own.

A fourteen year period from 1974 to 1988 saw the design and creation of a number of modern four cylinder models from Benelli. First there was a 500 Quattro, which in turn spawned the 500LS and went on to be upgraded in 1979 to the 504 Sport. Benelli went on to expand its range to include models of both higher and lower capacities. They included the 350RS, 354 and 354 Sport models, and on the larger side were the 654T and the 654 Sport. Benelli then surprised the world with their amazing 254 road bike. As most test reports will confirm the handling and performance is what you would expect from an Italian bike with a pedigree.

Elle Burrow goes on a road trip that will change her life forever. Her intention was to meet her estranged father, but what she finds instead is danger and devastation. Elle wants so badly to release the pain, the memory of it all. Can she become the powerful woman that would someday stand beside the leader of the club? Will she be the person who could take another life if needed? She was a college grad in business and a photographer, not a killer. Her one shining light in it all was the man who would not only take over the club but also her heart. Benelli Neroni wasn't ready to take over the reins of being the Unfortunate Souls president, but in tragedy, you do what it takes. Will he be able to rise and make the Unfortunate Souls MC what he's envisioned it could be? The club, started by soldiers, back home from a tour overseas. They wanted to keep that brotherhood, that bond alive, along with the love of the ride. Can he make it more? Can he save those that cannot save themselves, especially from the Vengeful Demons MC? Follow the story of Benelli and Elle as they take on all that life throws their way, together. WARNING: This book contains adult situations and scenes that may cause triggers such as murder, rape scene and trafficking.

God's Bankers Redline Books

A deeply reported, New York Times bestselling exposé of the money and the clerics-turned-financiers at the heart of the Vatican—the world’s biggest, most powerful religious institution—from an acclaimed journalist with “exhaustive research techniques” (The New York Times). From a master chronicler of legal and financial misconduct, a magnificent investigation nine years in the making, God’s Bankers traces the political intrigue of the Catholic Church in “a meticulous work that cracks wide open the Vatican’s legendary, enabling secrecy” (Kirkus Reviews). Decidedly not about faith, belief in God, or religious doctrine, this book is about the church’s accumulation of wealth and its byzantine financial entanglements across the world. Told through 200 years of prelates, bishops, cardinals, and the Popes who oversee it all, Gerald Posner uncovers an eyebrow-raising account of money and power in one of the world’s most influential organizations. God’s Bankers has it all: a revelatory and astounding saga marked by poisoned business titans, murdered prosecutors, and mysterious deaths written off as suicides; a carnival of characters from Popes and cardinals, financiers and mobsters, kings and prime ministers; and a set of moral and political circumstances that clarify not only the church’s aims and ambitions, but reflect the larger tensions of more recent history. And Posner even looks to the future to surmise if Pope Francis can succeed where all his predecessors failed: to overcome the resistance to change in the Vatican's Machiavellian inner court and to rein in the excesses of its seemingly uncontrollable financial quagmire. "As exciting as a mystery thriller" (Providence Journal), this book reveals with extraordinary precision how the Vatican has evolved from a foundation of faith to a corporation of extreme wealth and power.

Sathyajith P S

The Vatican, 1978: a little-known Cardinal from Venice is elected to succeed Pope Paul VI. A compromise candidate, he takes the name Pope John Paul I, and quickly shows himself to be the liberal the reactionaries within the Catholic Church most feared. Thirty-three days later he is dead. No official investigation is conducted, no autopsy is performed, and the Vatican's press release about the cause of death is found to be largely false. Premiered at the Chichester Festival in April 2007 starring David Suchet, this gripping thriller goes behind the scenes at the Vatican, uncovering the bitter rivalries, the political manoeuvrings and the unspoken crises of faith that surrounded the death of 'the Smiling Pope'.
