In Galatians 3:15-25, Paul is showing how the Law serves God's purposes. The Law doesn't void what God promised through Abraham, the promise that salvation would come not through our own efforts but through his very offspring. The Law serves this promise. It doesn't compete with it (vs. 19). The Purpose of the Law:

Galatians 3:15-25 – CBMW Galatians 3:15-25 Exploring the Passage. Paul is alluding to Genesis 13:14-15 and teaching that even before the Lord made a formal covenant with Abraham He had already made His promise to Abraham and his offspring (Abraham’s one singular offspring)—the covenant recorded in Genesis 15 was merely a formalizing of God’s sure promises for Abraham’s sake.
