Color Pencil Portraits - Artyfactory Color Pencil Portraits - Starting with a Line Drawing. This step by step lesson teaches you how to do a preparatory line drawing for a color pencil portrait. The preparatory line drawing. We have chosen a mid-brown color pencil for our line drawing as this will blend well with the colors of the skin tones and hair when we come to work over them at a later stage. Color Pencil Portraits - Starting with a Line Drawing We first begin by painting the main dark areas of the ear with a dark brown pencil. As usual, lay down this color in soft strokes and don't press down with the pencil too hard. You want these shadows to remain faint, a mere guide for later. Next, select your mid-tone — medium flesh in this case. Painting With Colored Pencils: Creating a Realistic Look This step by step lesson teaches you how to draw a mouth with color pencils. The mouth is the second most expressive feature of the face and often displays our responses to different
