"Hieroglyphics is a novel that tugs at the deepest places of the human soul—a beautiful, heart-piercing meditation on life and death and the marks we leave on this world. It is the work of a wonderful writer at her finest and most profound." —Jessica Shattuck, author of The Women in the Castle After many years in Boston, Lil and Frank have retired to North Carolina. The two of them married young, having bonded over how they both—suddenly, tragically—lost a parent when they were children. Now, Lil has become determined to leave a history for their own kids. She sifts through letters and notes and diary entries, uncovering old stories—and perhaps revealing more secrets than Frank wants their children to know. Meanwhile, Frank has become obsessed with the house he lived in as a boy on the outskirts of town, where a young single mother, Shelley, is now raising her son. For Shelley, Frank's repeated visits begin to trigger memories of her own family, memories that she'd hoped to keep buried. Because, after all, not all parents are ones you wish to remember. Empathetic and profound, this novel from master storyteller Jill McCorkle deconstructs and reconstructs what it means to be a father or a mother, and to be a child trying to know your parents—a child learning to make sense of the hieroglyphics of history and memory.

For Jackey Neyman Jones, who played Debbie in Manos: The Hands of Fate, the "worst movie ever made" is, at its heart, a home movie that just happens to be shared with the world. Equal parts memoir/family saga/film book, Growing Up with Manos: The Hands of Fate shares the behind-the-scenes story of the making of Manos: from creator Hal Warren's alleged bet with TV producer Stirling Silliphant that "anyone could make a movie," to the tragic suicide of John Reynolds (Torgo), right up through the newest Manos-related projects that are carrying the film into the digital age. Jackey's stories dispel much of the Manos mythology while crystallizing a unique time and place in America, where a crew of actors with a bad script and a rented camera set out to make a bad movie—and succeeded beyond their wildest dreams. Jackey Neyman Jones is a professional artist living in the Great Northwest. Laura Mazzuca Toops is a writer/editor with more than 30 years' experience in business and fiction writing. She is the author of three historical novels.

Growing Up with Manos Simon and Schuster

A lifelong weight control program featuring easy-to-follow, fat burning exercises and nutritional guidelines.

Object Oriented Data Structures 978-1-7776375-1-4

This book can be a godsend for many persons—for those who suffer from alcohol addiction, for their friends and loved ones, and for those in the relevant helping professions. Its central message is that alcoholism is primarily a metabolic disease that should be treated with due consideration of its physiological roots. The old moralistic approach and the more recent behavioral and psychological treatment approaches have a dismal record of failure, largely because they pay little or no attention to the crucial physiological and nutritional needs of alcoholics.

Homophones and Homographs 978-1-83844-270-5

Horace Fletcher, an American health-food advocate of the Victorian era, earned the nickname "The Great Masticator" through his advocacy that food needed to be chewed thirty-two times before being swallowed. At the age of 58, he conducted a series of strength and endurance experiments at the Yale Gymnasium versus college athletes which claimed that Fletcher could outperform these athletes. Fletcher also had a great interest in human excreta, believing that it evidenced one's true nutrition. He also advocated for a low-protein diet as a means of health and well-being. Through this 1913 volume Fletcher explains his theories of health and well-being and how, you too, can become a Fletcherite.

The Big Diogenes Ray Darwin is a disciple of Jeffrey Lebowski and an ordained minister in the Church of the Latter Day Dude. With his two sidekicks John and Rog, he convinces retired British rock star, Alex Watt, to write a theme track to promote Dudeism and The Tao of the Dude as the faith best able to inspire the revolutionary change needed to save humanity from the global climate crisis. Accompanying them on back-up are Liz Watt, former London stage actor and wife of Alex; Little Diogenes a blind, anti-social dog; and The Pisser, AKA: Ape, Apeman, Apemanus, Manus, or Big Diogenes, a homeless, misanthropic philosopher of the Greek Cynic tradition. Will it end well? Possibly not. But there will be music, intoxication, and frank exchanges of views. Death of a Boomer Norman Wolfe is a successful real estate salesman in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic, divorced, working too hard, and making too much money. One day the thought dawns on him to search for the great unrequited love of his adolescence. Flying across the continent from the west coast to the east, in effect travelling four hours into the future, he passes instead into a world where past, present, and future are all cast into doubt. Ah, Paradise An Alberta petroleum executive's vacation idyll is impacted by karma. The Idiot A dying man receives a lesson in Russian literature, when all he wanted was a smoke. Graveyard Shift An old man recalls his final shift as a youthful convenience store clerk. Easter, 2021 Contrasting Yeats' tribute to the heroic, self-sacrificing actions of ordinary citizens during the Irish rebellion of Easter, 1916; Easter, 2021 depicts the selfish and essentially self-destructive actions of modern day citizens during a time of global pandemic and climate crisis.

URANOSCOPIA

This book is devoted to a whole series of useful firearms, beginning with the well-known .22 Long Rifle. The venerable "twenty-two" hosts a wide array of interesting loads, including some ultra-quiet choices and fairly nasty high-speed rounds. Even hotter rimfire calibers include the .22 Winchester Magnum Rimfire, plus three small-bore derivatives: the .17 Mach II, .17 Hornady Rimfire Magnum, and Winchester's high velocity .17 Super Magnum. Careful shopping can provide us with a useful rimfire (or maybe even two) with which to quietly harvest small game or eliminate pests. An economical .22 LR firearm can also serve as a great high-powered rifle trainer if similar function is considered. In a pinch, it might even work for self-defense. The rimfires can't do everything, but they can do a lot once fully understood. One trait is easy to overlook until you start shooting. They're lots of fun! This book will lead the way from beginning to end.
