Introduction
There are five things that will always happen for as long as we live

serving the purposes of God in and through this
platform.
Every time we gather, there
must be encounters.
An encounter
is an experience
that makes

God and His principles real
in your life.
There must be transformation
- the name given to the process that makes you
become like Christ in experience.
We must give
the Holy Spirit

an opportunity to review the love and the power of Jesus through signs, wonders and miracles. There must be impartations of all sorts. An impartation is a transference of spiritual possibilities. Men can carry graces. Our possibilities in this kingdom are defined by the kinds and the levels of graces that we carry. "Thou anointed my head with oil" and I see the proof on my head by looking at my cup; it doesn't anoint my cup . If something is wrong with my cup, the problem is not my cup; the problem is what is on my head. We must always provide an opportunity for fellowship. How good and how pleasant it is when brethren dwell together in unity. It's like the oil that comes upon the head of Aaron down to his beard and his garment. It says, "There, the Lord has commanded the blessing." What you're about to read will change your life in the name of Jesus Christ. The Lord put a very powerful teaching in my heart and I'm sent to the body of Christ primarily. It's regardless denomination, the doctrinal differences that seem to divide us (it's part of the reasons why He brought us to this city and has projected us to the nations as instruments of unity, balance, dexterity and groove). We are lifted and strengthened in this kingdom not based on our longevity in the faith. Time does not change anything. Time only reveals. A 10-year-old error can still destroy like a 1-year-old error provided it is error. It takes understanding . It says, " for the people that sat in darkness have seen a great light". If you're distracted when the word of God is coming, be sure that it is an attack because it takes focus and concentration to receive. There is an intellectual dimension to the reception of the word. It's not just a spiritual affair alone; your mind has to be active and fruitful. So, even if your spirit is alive and your mind is distracted... That's why sometimes before the message comes, God quickly settles issues like these because some of those issues are the things that distract people from listening. While the word of God is coming, someone is thinking, "How do I battle this issue, how do I battle that issue?"

 There are certain doctrines that are considered foundational to the understanding of any believer, when you get born again, you don't just grow haphazardly, you don't grow carelessly. It matters a doctrine that are introduced to a believer at his encounter with Christ. This will guide the efficiency of your growth or otherwise. Not every dimension of knowledge is needed at every time, it is important that the information that are supplied believers especially as they grow are strategic enough to be able to make their growth useful, it's like building, after you lay a foundation the next thing is not a sink, if you put a sink you are going to destroy the building, you cannot say you have a house, a sink is part of the requirement but there will be a time for sink. So theologically there are some certain foundational truths and I believe one of the reasons why believers are not very matured is because there is a haphazard communication of spiritual truth and realities. It is my considered opinion and it is also theologically agreed is that when believers come into Christ, the first thing they need to know is to have a thorough understanding of what we know and believe is the finished work of Jesus. That is the very next foundational understanding, there is no point teaching them about money, there is no point teaching them about service in the ministry, if they stumble across a service where that is being taught well that is alright but when you are training and building people there is a system. An altar is a gateway between the realm of the spirit and the earth realm that grants unhindered access to certain spirit beings to find legal expression in the earth. An altar is a legal landing spot of the spirit on the earth. An altar is an altar because of the presence of sacrifice, the realm of the spirit wants to interact with the realm of the earth legally and vice versa because the inhabitants of the earth knows that without the realm of the spirit they are limited in the possibilities that they can produce, they call for the assistance of these spirit beings. In agreement to bring these possibilities to the inhabitants of earth, the spirits give their conditions, certain things that can create a habitation that will look exactly like where they are coming from and then they summarize their demands in what they call sacrifice and they ask men to raise certain structures and put certain sacrifices. The kind of sacrifice on the altar depends on the kind of spirit that wants to access the earth, the absence of sacrifice on an altar makes it unqualified to be called an altar, thus, the sacrifice is what makes it an altar and the kind of spirit to whom the altar is raised determines whether the altar will be a good one or a bad one. Read This Book and Be Blessed

Membership. Enforcing Prophetic Decrees Revmedia We are submitting ourselves to the dealings of the Spirit day after day, week after week, month after month. We are subjecting ourselves as students in the spirit allowing Him to change us and bring us into the comprehension of Kingdom realities. Because a time will come when the dividends of this sacrifice will appear unto all and we want to position ourselves. We are not careful to admit that not everybody is opened to the things of the Spirit especially in this day and age where there are all kinds of Christian distractions. The church of Christ has become a place where ethics of religion are taken as usual. But the presence of Christ and His body ought to be a place of freshness where we can communicate to the world what the spirit of the Lord is doing at every given time. The spirit of oppression has specific telltale effects on individuals, communities, and nations. These are identified by Myles Munroe as a hatred for work, laziness, fear, low self- esteem, selfishness, lack of creativity, low initiative, and distrust of those in authority. To break free from these self-replicating cycles of oppression there must be a mental	transformation . Paradoxically, freedom requires the need to impose control on self, require more responsibility than slavery, and the decision to accept a destiny of freedom, recognizing the process and discipline that personal and political freedom require. In Understanding the Purpose and Power of Authority, best-selling author Dr. Myles Munroe turns the widely accepted but counterfeit concept of authority upside down. Then, he reveals God's original intent, showing us how to live in the freedom of our own personal authority in God's great design and to respond positively to the inherent authority of others. Many people view authority as something oppressive, stifling, and even fearful. All of us hate to be controlled or manipulated. Our negative concepts and experiences of authority produce life-draining emotions—fear, distrust, suspicion, friction, defensiveness, antagonism, stress, worry, and dread. Others have a limited perspective of what authority means, believing that only people who reach a certain "level" in life can exercise it. They don't believe they could ever be called to a place of authority. The truth is, we were all created for authority, and we are all answerable to the authority of others. Authority is what we're authorized to do by our inherent purposes. You have a God-given calling to develop your own personal authority to carry out your unique purpose in life.

Recounting the incredible story of revival on the island of Timor during 1965 in the midst of political turmoil, the book is an amazing testament to the power of faith and the reality of God's power to work miracles in modern times. The Spirit of God that swept across the island “like a mighty wind” continues today throughout Indonesia although persecution of Christians is all too common. The story of God's powerful revival in this region remains a testament to the truth of God's Word, and serves as a reminder to all believers that the Spirit of God manifests in our world now as it did in the earliest days of the Church.
