HEY, LET'S MAKE A BAND!

Andrews UK Limited

At age four, Lady Gaga was learning to play piano without formal instruction. By age fifteen, she was already starting to live her musical dream by performing in New York nightclubs. At age seventeen, she entered into one of the world's most prestigious art schools. And before the age of twenty-five, she had multiple music awards in her pocket, has singles that topped the charts, had performed before royalty and world leaders, and was even named one of Barbara Walters' Most Fascinating People of 2009. Lady Gaga didn't rise to the top by blending in. Her unique style—sometimes risqué and controversial—reveals her personality, her love of art, and her belief that it is important to be comfortable with who you are. While others are trying to find their spot in the world, Lady Gaga is proof that you can make your own, that persistence pays off, and that you can live your biggest dream!

Charlie Puth did not grow up dreaming of being a pop star. Instead, he wanted to do what he loved most: write music. This young man who learned to play the piano at the age of four, had a clear talent for writing and composing, which led him to study jazz and classical music during his school years. He later earned a degree in music production and engineering. After graduating from the Berklee School of Music, he thought he would make his living helping others record music, but an invitation to record a song he had written for Wiz Khalifa with the rap artist changed all that. Today Charlie is one of the country's most popular pop performers.

It seemed as if Sydney's 5 Seconds Of Summer came from out of nowhere. 5SOS have only released one studio album, a live album and a few EPs yet they have nine million Facebook likes, a huge social media following and a largely female fanbase. 5SOS have a devoted fanbase that follows their every move online via the band's regular social media posts. Their success is a matter of timing, luck, perseverance and the good fortune of having One Direction as one of their biggest fans. Their songs are pretty catchy too. However, having toured with One Direction on multiple occasions and being so young has meant that they have been labelled a "boy band" which is not the case. They play their own instruments and write their own songs. 5SOS certainly have more in common with pop punk bands than they do with One Direction. Their musical heroes are bands like Green Day, Good Charlotte, All Time Low and Nirvana. This book charts 5 Seconds Of Summer's rapid rise to success, details their musical influences and offers a handy reference guide to the band's main achievements. Pop Punk From Down Under is essential reading for 5 Seconds Of Summer fans.
