Natural English Cambridge University Press

Innovations is a new five-level general English course for classes looking for new material with a fresh approach. Based on a language-rich, lexical/grammatical syllabus, it starts from the kinds of natural conversations that learners want to have.

The Death and Life of Great American Cities Cambridge University Press

Each of the four levels comprises about 80 hours of class work, with additional time for the self-study work. The Teacher's Book contains all the pages from the Classroom Book, with interleaved teaching notes including optional activities to cater for different abilities. There is a video to accompany the Beginner, Pre-intermediate and Intermediate levels. Each video contains eight stimulating and entertaining short programmes, as well as a booklet of photocopiable activities. Free test material is available in booklet and web format for Beginner and Pre-intermediate levels. Visit www.cambridge.org/elt/liu or contact your local Cambridge University Press representative.

the course

Natural English Pre-Intermediate Flatiron Books

It's a course with a new syllabus area called natural English - accessible, high-frequency phrases which elementary learners can pick up and use.

You'll find an emphasis on how to use real language: natural English provides thinking and rehearsal time, confidence-building practice, and task-centred speaking. There's a special focus on learning how to listen and help with pronunciation and listening sections include extra pronunciation and listening exercises. For teachers... there's a new kind of teachers book, with specially designed lesson plans, and five 'how to...' teacher development chapters.
