DISCIPLING HOW TO HELP OTHERS

Discipling: How to Help Others Follow Jesus \(9Marks ...\)

Biblical discipling, as I said, is helping others to follow Jesus by doing deliberate spiritual good to them. And biblical discipling largely occurs in and through churches. It's easy for Christians today to miss this. The definition he provides for discipleship is "helping others to follow Jesus by doing deliberate spiritual good to them."

First Peter 4:10 — All Christians are to use their gifts to serve others. Acts 18:24-26 — Priscilla and Aquila, on the spur of the moment it seems, explained the way of God more accurately to Apollos. And we could go on and on. Every Christian should be helping unbelievers become believers by showing them Christ. That is making a disciple.

Discipling: How to Help Others Follow Jesus (9Marks ...)

Dever has undertaken the task of writing the volume on Discipling in the Building Healthy Churches book series produced by 9Marks and Crossway, which means we are getting the top treatment of this topic. Yet, Dever keeps the message of Discipling simple: Discipling is "helping someone follow Jesus by doing spiritual good in his or her life" (47).

WHAT IS DISCIPLESHIP AND HOW IS IT DONE? | DESIRING GOD

"Dever reminds readers that discipling is a biblical mandate, motivated by obedience to Christ's commandment and love for others, and it is not an effort reserved for a select few. It does not reduce people to projects, but rather it seeks to intentionally develop a relationship with them.

In short, discipling is "helping others to follow Jesus by doing deliberate spiritual good to them" (p. 19), and the clearest pattern we see for this in Scripture is the example of Jesus and his apostles.
