News Professor Cheng-Few Lee ranks #1 based on his publications in the 26 core finance journals, and #163 based on publications in the 7 leading finance journals (Source: Most Prolific Authors in the Finance Literature: 1959–2008 by Jean L Heck and Philip L Cooley (Saint Joseph's University and Trinity University)). This is an extensively revised edition of a popular statistics textbook for business and economics students. The first edition has been adopted by universities and colleges worldwide, including New York University, Carnegie Mellon University and UCLA. Designed for upper-level undergraduates, MBA and other graduate students, this book closely integrates various statistical techniques with concepts from business, economics and finance and clearly demonstrates the power of statistical methods in the real world of business. While maintaining the essence of the first edition, the new edition places more emphasis on finance, economics and accounting concepts with updated sample data. Students will find this book very accessible with its straightforward language, ample cases, examples, illustrations and real-life applications. The book is also useful for financial analysts and portfolio managers. Request Inspection Copy

WJEC and Eduqas GCSE Business Oswaal Books and Learning Private Limited

"The chapters in this book attempt to state the main facts about tests, test methods, and test accomplishments, in the field of business. The aim throughout is to present a simple and impartial picture which will enable the reader to arrive at sound conclusions regarding the actual usefulness of tests in the business world, and the possibilities of future development. It is hoped that the material included will prove useful to anyone interested in the problem of more adequately adjusting men to jobs. The book is written for students of personnel practice and of applied psychology, and for all business executives who have been hearing the clamor about tests and who want to form a critical opinion on the basis of facts. At present it is important to emphasize the limitations and shortcomings of tests as to speak in glowing terms of their possibilities. Tests are scientific instruments. Test work should be supervised by someone with thorough training in applied psychology"--Preface. (PsycINFO Database Record (c) 2010 APA, all rights reserved).
