Summary: "Yes" or "No": The Guide to Better Decisions, by Spencer Johnson, M.D. David Avery - david.r.avery@gmail.com. 20 April 2009. Meeting the Real Need: A Summary. Pursuing only the real need in the very beginning gets me better results in the end. This means both seeing a vision of needed results in such real detail that I sense myself already achieving them, & then doing only what meets the real need.

David R. Avery: Summary: "Yes" or "No": The Guide to ... The 'Yes' or 'No' system is broken down into two main questions to ask yourself when making decisions. One is a practical question and the other is a private question. This allows you to use the system while making personal decisions or buisness decisions. Every day we are all faced with decisions, big and small.

1. Reversed cards mean "no." A simple way to receiving "yes or no" answers is to ask your yes or no question and take all reversed cards as "no" and upright cards as a "yes." For example: Question: Will I be married within the next 10 years? Card: 10 of Wands (Reversed) This would mean "no" from your Tarot deck, as the card is reversed.
