"An inspirational and practical guide for anyone who wants to incorporate the dynamic skills of entrepreneurs into their own lives and work. A new generation of "life entrepreneurs" is emerging: people who apply their vision, talents, creativity, and energy not only to their work but to their entire lives, changing the world for themselves and those around them. In this book, successful entrepreneurs Christopher Gergen and Gregg Vanourek draw on numerous interviews with fifty-five leading entrepreneurs worldwide as well as the wisdom of multiple thought leaders to provide vivid examples, moving vignettes,

concrete frameworks, and practical strategies for revving up our work and play through entrepreneurial leadership. This book starts by providing strategies for integrating life, work, and purpose and ends by capturing the implications of the current entrepreneurial boom for our workplaces, learning institutions, communities, and families. Christopher Gergen (Washington, D.C.) is a founding partner of New Mountain Ventures, co-founder and chairman of SMARTHINKING, Adjunct Professor and Director of the Entrepreneurial Leadership Initiative at Duke University, and a life-long entrepreneur, Gregg Vanourek (Thornton, CO) is a founding partner of New Mountain Ventures, former CEO of Vanourek Consulting Solutions, and former Senior Vice President of School Development for K12 Inc." Life Dream CreateSpace As people have come to yearn for more fulfilling and creative work, many are realizing their dreams by leaving the corporate life behind and creating businesses around the things they love. In Not Just a Living, Mark Henricks explores the genesis of this cultural and social phenomenon and offers a comprehensive approach

Do you want to experience your one life--your whole life--to its fullest measure? In this stirring book, author, blogger and lifestyle entrepreneur, Tal Gur offers his own transformational journey as an inspiring example and practical guide to implementing the art of fully living. You'll learn how to actualize your potential by forging all aspects of your life through the process built into your life goals. The very structure of this book models Tal's immersive approach to goal-driven living: each chapter of The Art of Fully Living is dedicated to a year of focus--socializing, fitness, freedom, contribution, love, adventure, wealth, relationship, spirituality, and creativity--and follows Tal's endeavors as he works toward fulfilling 100 life goals in only 10 years. This daunting ambition, springing from one late-night conversation among friends and a gnawing discontentment within the typical "success" story, becomes extremely relatable through Tal's bold storytelling; what's more, the deep lessons learned become immediately applicable for your own purposes as

Tal thoughtfully extracts the actionable wisdom from his own experiences to articulate the principles and techniques of "the art of fully living." The Art of Fully Living takes you along the exhilarating ride of Tal's journey while illuminating your own possible life-goal trajectory: as Tal relates how he socialized nonstop in vibrant Melbourne to master English and trained intensively to complete Ironman New Zealand and practice ancient Thai martial arts, you'll learn how to apply immersion to achieve your own life goals; as Tal describes how he eliminated his crushing student debt in one year and attained financial and location independence, you'll learn how to simplify your life, recognize your own present wealth, and turn your passions into a living; and as Tal animates his experiences learning to surf and salsa, to drum in a troupe and compose electronic music, and to write this very book, you'll learn how to let your intuition be your guide, reveal your authentic core, and achieve flow--among the myriad other adventures and take-aways that fill this book. Tal not only introduces the idea that the art of fully living is another skill to master but also guides you through honing this skill with chapter lessons and actionable key takeaways. Once you discover "the art of fully living," there is no going back; it will feel unacceptable to settle for less than your dreams--and what's more, you'll dream even more wildly, aspiring to action with greater clarity of purpose, broader horizons of possibility, and holistic vision across all areas of your life. This book is especially for you if you find yourself frustrated often, feeling low, or if you're struggling while asking yourself "What do I REALLY want?"  The Art of Creation is the Process of Turning Your Ideas into Reality Right now you have within you the power and potential to create whatever you want in life. Yes, anything! That doesn't necessarily mean that you have the materials, the experience or the willpower to see the art of creation through to completion, but you do have the power and the potential. How powerful would it be to become conscious of the process that results in your life as you experience it now? Wouldn't it be empowering to have the tools to consciously create all the time and in all areas? What will you create next? Whether that means building a business, traveling the world, writing a book or mastering a language,

The Art of Creation guides you through the process of dreaming big and making it real. In Part 1 you will learn The Hierarchy of Creation Energy to align your thoughts, emotions and actions to become a master creator. This is all about understanding the non-physical dimensions of life that influence all that we think, feel and do. These are the dimensions of Consciousness, Spirit and Soul. Your level of consciousness determines your worldview and outlook on life, your connection to spirit determines how much of life's energy is available to you at any given time, and embodying your soul allows your unique gifts to be shared with the world. From there, we'll explore the physical dimensions of life which are the mental, emotional and physical planes of existence. The mental plane is the realm of the mind, which governs the thoughts we think and logical problem solving. The emotional plane are the feelings in our bodies and the intuitive guidance they provide. The physical plane is where our actions play out, which determines how others experience us. Aligning your life with The Hierarchy of Creation Energy empowers you to live authentically and let your light shine for all the world to see. In Part 2 you'll be introduced to The Vision-MAP Creative Palette, which is the toolbox that turns your ideas into reality. You'll learn how to create a compelling vision for the life you want to live and all that is in it, then craft a MAP to achieve it. MAP stands for Mission, Action & Product and this is the tactical process of moving from where you are now to where you want to be. Whereas your vision is personal and is limited only by your imagination, the mission you define is meant to make a difference in the lives of others. Your mission is what drives your actions and coordinates the energies and efforts of others around a common purpose. Finally the end product is the outcome you create, the real-world results that move you step-by-step towards actualizing the vision you hold. The Art of Creation is your guide to consciously create the life of your dreams. May you be inspired and empowered to realize your full potential and live a life that will leave a legacy! Gender, Social Media, and Aspirational Work Michael J Erickson Claim Your Dream Life helps readers design a custom roadmap to create their dream life in paradise - whatever that may mean to them. The Art of Creation Independently Published John Mason is a rebel in the American insurance industry. He had every reason to fail: no education, not born with a silver spoon in his mouth, and comes from a poor ramshackle town in the middle of upstate New York. Over the last thirty years, this street-smart entrepreneur has used unique marketing and management ideas to march into New York City and buy five brokerages, expand his brokerage network into 20 states, while relaxing at his home in the Caribbean. This book is a must-read for anyone desiring to get rich in the insurance business today.
